The People Environment:

People-Environment Studies: Promoting Sustainable Places and Behaviors Giuseppe Carrus, Tony Peter Craig, Adina Claudia Dumitru, Stefano Mastandrea, 2022-09-26 2017 Press Conference Records of Ministry of Environmental Protection, the People's Republic of China Min. of Environmental Protection of RPC, 2019-05-29 This book introduces readers to the press release work carried out by China's Ministry of Environmental Protection in 2017. The routine press release work in 2017 was first launched by the Ministry of Environmental Protection MEP. In 2017, 12 directors of the MEP and three directors of the Environmental Protection Department of the Beijing Tianjin Hebei Tribune came together to answer citizens' questions on key social issues such as Environmental Quality Monitoring, Prevention of Air Pollution, Ecosystem Protection, Water Pollution Prevention, Environmental Supervision, Legal Enforcement, etc. This book will provide readers with an overview of China's environmental protection policy initiatives, help raise public awareness of the environment, and lay the foundation for all citizens to participate in environmental governance. 2019 Press Conference Records of Ministry of Ecology and Environment, the People's Republic of China Ministry of Ecology and Environment, 2020-12-21 This book introduces the press release work carried out by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment of the People's Republic of China in 2019. It is divided into four parts, each arranged chronologically. The first part contains the records of Li Ganjie, Minister of the Ministry of Ecology and Environment, who attended the press conference on Promoting Ecological Civilization and Building a Beautiful China. The second part contains the records of Minister Li Ganjie's attendance at the press conference of the National People's Congress and the Chinese Political Consultative Conference, as well as the Minister's channel. The third part contains the records of four press conferences on ecological and environmental protection held by the State Council Information Office of the People's Republic of China. The fourth part contains the records of 12 regular press conferences held by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment. The Environment and the People in American Cities, 1600s-1900s Dorceta E. Taylor, 2009-11-23 This wide-ranging study of urban environmental history draws our attention to environmental challenges faced by American cities over the past four centuries, showing how understandings of race, class, and gender shape discourse on the environment. 2018 Press Conference Records of Ministry of Ecology and Environment, the People's Republic of China Ministry of Ecology and Environment, 2020-12-21 This book introduces readers to the press release work carried out by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment of the People's Republic of China in 2018. It is divided into 3 parts, and each part is arranged in chronological order. The first part contains the records of Li Ganjie, Minister of the Ministry of Ecology and Environment, who attended the press conference of the two conferences and the Ministerial Channel. The second part contains the record of Special Representative of China's Climate Change Affairs Xie Zhenhua, who attended the China's Policies and Actions on Climate Change 2018 Annual Report press conference, and Zhao Yingmin, Deputy Minister of the Ministry of Ecology and Environment, who attended the Three-year Action Plan to Win the Blue Sky Defense War policy.

briefing The third part contains the records of 12 regular press conferences of the Ministry of Ecology and Environment throughout the year

People and Environment D.J. Walmsley,G.J. Lewis,2014-09-19 First published in 1994 This book comprises a second edition of Human Geography behavioural approaches first published in 1984 The first edition attempted to synthesize the massive volume of geographical literature to have appeared mainly since 1960 concerned with both how people come to know the environment in which they live and with the way in which such knowledge influences subsequent spatial behaviour As with the first edition the rationale for advantages of and shortcomings with behavioural approaches are explored at length in both substantive chapters and in a number of detailed examinations of particular aspects of life in advanced Western society

Elderly People and the Environment Irwin Altman,M. Powell Lawton,Joachim F. Wohlwill,2013-06-29 The present volume in our series follows the format of the immediately preceding ones in dealing with a topical theme of considerable importance in the environment and behavior field In view of current and projected demographic trends it is a certainty that a broad ranging set of issues concerned with the elderly and the physical environment will continue to be of focal pertinence if not of increasing importance in the remaining decades of this century The present volume also follows in the tradition of earlier volumes in the series in being eclectic with respect to content theory and methodology and in including contributions from a variety of disciplines such as anthropology economics psychology geography and urban and regional planning To have encompassed the whole array of disciplines and topics in this emerging field in a single volume would have been impossible We trust that the sample of contributions that we have selected is provocative and that it will illustrate the range of problems and topics and point to promising areas of study and analysis We are pleased to have M Powell Lawton as a guest co editor for this volume His broad ranging expertise perceptive judgment and fine editorial talents have contributed enormously to the volume

Handbook of Environmental Psychology and Quality of Life Research Ghazlane Fleury-Bahi,Enric Pol,Oscar Navarro,2016-08-12 This Handbook presents a broad overview of the current research carried out in environmental psychology which puts into perspective quality of life and relationships with living spaces and shows how this original analytical framework can be used to understand different environmental and societal issues Adopting an original approach this Handbook focuses on the links with other specialties in psychology especially social and health psychology together with other disciplines such as geography architecture sociology anthropology urbanism and engineering Faced with the problems of society which involve the quality of life of individuals and communities it is fundamental to consider the relationships an individual has with his different living spaces This issue of the links between quality of life and environment is becoming increasingly significant with at a local level problems resulting from different types of annoyances such as pollution and noise while at a global level there is the central question of climate change with its harmful consequences for humans and the planet How can the impact on well being of environmental nuisances and threats for example natural risks pollution and noise be reduced How can the quality of life within daily living spaces home cities work environments be improved Why is it important to understand the psychological issues of our relationship with the global environment climatic warming ecological behaviours This Handbook is intended not only for students of various disciplines geography architecture psychology town planning etc but also for social decision makers and players who will find in it both theoretical and methodological perspectives so that psychological and environmental dimensions can be better taken into account in their working practices Researching Education and the Environment Alan Reid, William Scott, 2007-10-25 Previously published as a special issue of Environmental Education Research this collection includes some of the most influential and important articles contributed to the field over the last decade Drawing out the best articles from volumes one to ten the editors highlight six major themes EE and ESD tension or transition locating the environ
