by Dominic Chappell a charlatan who siphoned off BHS's remaining millions before filing for administration. By the time it went under in April 2016 BHS had debts of 1.3bn including a pension deficit of 571m. Its collapse left 11,000 employees without jobs and 20,000 pension fund members facing the loss of their benefits prompting the government to launch an inquiry into Green's sale of the company. While one of Britain's oldest department stores boarded up its shop fronts former employees and shoppers protested in the streets and MPs rallied in parliament demanding Green be stripped of his knighthood. The furore over the sale subsided in 2017 when Green agreed a 363m deal with the Pensions Regulator but with revelations surrounding Topshop's pension deficit now surfacing could tragedy strike again. Oliver Shah is the award winning Business Editor of the Sunday Times and one of the most respected national commentators on business and the high street. He was named business journalist of the year at both the Press Awards and London Press Club Awards in 2017 for his investigation into Sir Philip Green. Shah studied English at Cambridge University and journalism at City University before joining City AM in 2009 and the Sunday Times in 2010. Aged 34 Shah lives in east London.
