The Kojo Hand:

The Kojo Hand Tom Gatten, 2002-02-01 Tom Gatten's The Kojo Hand is a novel about people pursuing their dreams mainly a young woman in college and her friend and out of the classroom teacher Kojo Dedu a scholar from Ghana with a calling to produce positive social change. The story is told from the point of view of Deanie Hollins a nineteen year old student at a fictional university on Long Island. The story takes place in the spring and summer of 1972 and moves forward through questions and answers raised by Kojo's possible connection with a coup d'etat in his homeland and by Deanie's part time work as a model in New York City. JD Reed Senior Editor Time Magazine and author of Free Fall and Pursuit of D B Cooper says of the manuscript The Kojo Hand is a wonderful novel. It's a kind of Shane for baby boomers with a neat twist. Making teacher and student different sexes is a fine touch. Kojo is a truly magnificent character. I wish I'd known him. The cast is great. John Stewart Professor of African American and African Studies Department of Anthropology University of California Davis and author of Last Cool Days Curving Road For the Ancestors and Looking for Josephine says of the manuscript the range of experiences and the ways the characters persist in their world are handled with considerable insight. There are some nice things there. Dr Marcellette G Williams Interim Chancellor and Professor of English and Comparative Literature The University of Massachusetts Amherst says of the manuscript Gatten's handling of his female narrator's point of view is deft and refreshingly faithful to the grain to borrow from Kojo Dedu's phrasing as is his handling of the narrator's feelings about love in her relationship with her lover managing even to incorporate the knots into the overall design. Okinawan Martial

The variety of topics shown in the table of contents indicate the depth and breadth in the chapters along with the authors who are well known for their meticulous research and practical skills in specific arts. These three volumes dive deep into the history and culture of Okinawan martial arts. You'll find coverage of the actual artifacts the material culture related to weaponry and training methods. Instructions from the masters details both open hand techniques as well as with weapons. The chapters offer insights into the lives of many masters over the past few centuries giving the raison d'être for these unique fighting arts their reason for being. Blind Man in Africa Cass Cassidy,2014-06-30 Is Africa now being re colonized by the upcoming powerful nations Can we afford to stand by Or is it already too late Cass Cassidy has travelled worked and lived in Africa and discovered the contrasting ways of everyday life with very different values put even on life itself When Cassidy lived there African states had been de colonized for a decade or two Unfortunately by removing himself from affairs the colonist had inadvertently created a power vacuum The arbitrator had gone and there was nothing in the arsenal to replace it The boundaries and borders had been changed so the power struggle in the form of tribalism began and continues to this day many years after independence This book is a first hand account of just what this has meant to the average African who has been sadly let down as dreams of independence are shattered time and time again

Keepers of the Sanctuary Osafo Kofi Asante, 2015-11-18 The Monkey Sanctuary of Boabeng Fiema was the last place students from Kyerewaa Memorial would choose for an excursion The quest to experience wildlife in its natural habitat would however be enough persuasion for a teacher to get six of her class to follow her to the sanctuary They made their journey to Boabeng Fiema from where they secured the services of a tour guide who led them into the sanctuary Their expectation of a beautiful academic excursion was crudely cut short when loud drumming and chants pierced the silence that was characteristic of the sanctuary These loud noises were the result of very unnatural and barbaric rituals that targeted monkeys for sacrifices Unsettled by this the monkeys would respond with a self defense stance to prevent more deaths Caught in the midst of this ensuing scuffle Miss Brefi and her students are presented with a whole new experience that was unexpected and very unacademic Miss Brefi and her students must now find their way out of the forest and out of harms way With their tour guide dead they must work together to outwit the monkeys who were now on a rampage to kill anything human
