The Last Best West Women On The Alberta Frontier 1880-1930:

The Last Best West Eliane Leslau Silverman, 1998-01-01 Contains the experiences of the women who settled in frontier Alberta beginning as early as the mid 1880s Their stories of immigration education marriage household work paid labor and childbirth form a domestic history Back cover

Without Apology Shannon Stettner, 2016-08-26 Until the late 1960s the authorities on abortion were for the most part men politicians clergy lawyers physicians all of whom had an interest in regulating women's bodies Even today when we hear women speak publicly about abortion the voices are usually those of the leaders of women's and abortion rights organizations women who hold political office and on occasion female physicians We also hear quite frequently from spokeswomen for anti abortion groups Rarely however do we hear the voices of ordinary women women whose lives have been in some way touched by abortion Their thoughts typically owe more to human circumstance than to ideology and without them we run the risk of thinking and talking about the issue of abortion only in the abstract Without Apology seeks to address this issue by gathering the voices of activists feminists and scholars as well as abortion providers and clinic support staff alongside the stories of women whose experience with abortion is more personal With the particular aim of moving beyond the polarizing rhetoric that has characterized the issue of abortion and reproductive justice for so long Without Apology is an engrossing and arresting account that will promote both reflection and discussion

Women and the White Man's God Myra Rutherdale, 2007-10-01 Between 1860 and 1940 Anglican missionaries were very active in northern British Columbia Yukon and the Northwest Territories To date histories of this mission work have largely focused on men while the activities of women either as missionary wives or as missionaries in their own right have been seen as peripheral at best if not completely overlooked Based on diaries letters and mission correspondence Women and the White Man's God is the first comprehensive examination of women's roles in northern domestic missions The status of women in the Anglican Church gender relations in the mission field and encounters between Aborigines and missionaries are carefully scrutinized Arguing that the mission encounter challenged colonial hierarchies Rutherdale expands our understanding of colonization at the intersection of gender race and religion This book is a critical addition to scholarship in women's Canadian Native and religious studies and complements a growing body of literature on gender and empire in Canada and elsewhere

History, Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies Alison Calder, Robert Wardhaugh, 2005-05-16 The Canadian Prairie has long been represented as a timeless and unchanging location defined by settlement and landscape Now a new generation of writers and historians challenge that perception and argue instead that it is a region with an evolving culture and history In a collection of ten essays History Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies explores a more contemporary prairie identity and reconfigures the prairie as a construct that is non linear and diverse responding to the impact of geographical historical and political currents These writers explore the connections between document and imagination between history and culture and between geography and time The subjects of the essays range widely the non linear structure of Carol Shield s The Stone Diaries the impact of Aberhart s Social Credit Marshall McLuhan and Mesopotamian myth on Robert Kroetsch s prairie postmodernism the role of document in long prairie poems the connection between cultural tourism and heritage the theme of regeneration in Margaret Laurence s Manawaka writing the influence of imagination on geography in Thomas Wharton s Icefields and the effects on an alpine climber of pre WWII ideological concepts of time and individualism Through Feminist Eyes Joan Sangster,2011 Through Feminist Eyes gathers in one volume the most incisiveand insightful essays written to date by the distinguished Canadianhistorian Joan Sangster To the original essays Sangster has addedextensive introductory discussions that situate her earlier work in thecontext of developing theory and debate Sangster has also supplied anintroduction to the collection in which she reflects on the themes andtheoretical orientations that have shaped the writing of women shistory over the past thirty years Approaching her subject matter froman array of interpretive frameworks that engage questions of gender class colonialism politics and labour Sangster explores the livedexperience of women in a variety of specific historical settings In sodoing she sheds new light on issues that have sparked much debateamong feminist historians and offers a thoughtful overview of theeolution of women s history in Canada A Companion to Gender History Teresa A. Meade,Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks,2008-04-15 A Companion to Gender History surveys the history of womenaround the world studies their interaction with men in genderedsocieties and looks at the role of gender in shaping humanbehavior over thousands of years An extensive survey of the history of women around the world their interaction with men and the role of gender in shaping humanbehavior over thousands of years Discusses family history the history of the body andsexuality and cultural history alongside women s history andgender history Considers the importance of class region ethnicity race andreligion to the formation of gendered societies Contains both thematic essays and chronological geographicessays Gives due weight to pre history and the pre modern era as wellas to the modern era Written by scholars from across the English speaking world andscholars for whom English is not their first language Female Economy Mary Kinnear,1998 This book analyses a hundred years of women s work in Manitoba from the province s entry into the Confederation in 1870 It provides an overview of women s place in the work force A Country Nourished on Self-doubt Thomas Thorner,Thor Frohn-Nielsen,2010-01-01 Always illuminating often infuriating and as raw and vivid as any collection of primary materials that I ve seen assembled for students I will definitely be using the book in my survey course Christopher Pennington University of Toronto Scarborough The Methods and Methodologies of Qualitative Family Research Janet F Gilgun,Marvin B Sussman,2014-06-03 The Methods and Methodologies of Qualitative Family Research can provide you with a strong conceptual framework for undertaking qualitative research As it explores inquiry and theory on the cutting edge it shows how qualitative methodologies can be applied to family life education and research Designed to demonstrate how emerging and established methodologies can advance the understanding of families and direct social change this book is a major step in assessing the
