Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarrou Fadia Fayez Suyoufie 1990 Census of Population and Housing ,1993 Housing Decisions for the Elderly Leon A Pastalan,1995-09-25 Because many elderly wish to age in place they typically give little thought to the future of their housing options Housing Decisions for the Elderly articulates the relevant issues regarding the diversity and complexity of housing decisions in terms of moving or not moving To move or not to move is really part of the aging in place debate In this guidebook the authors deal with such issues as changes in economic income and stances changes in household composition and health and the psychosocial and metaphysical significance of house This treatment of housing decisions regarding aging in place serves to assist professionals and laypersons to help the elderly make more informed choices and to plan better for the future Housing Decisions for the Elderly reminds those who work with elderly persons community organization workers housing counselors and specialists home health care agencies and gerontologists that the proportion of persons living in family settings decreases with age so that the older the person the more likely he or she will be living alone or with nonrelatives in institutional or quasi institutional settings While changes in household composition typically occur at one or more points in the aging process such as death of spouse incapacitating illness or loss of income other housing issues to consider are addressed why socioeconomic determinants of housing decisions of elderly homeowners focuses primarily on housing characteristics owning vs renting length of housing tenure age and support from relatives how elderly housing assistance programs affect housing tenure deals with age as the single most
