The Battered Woman's Survival Guide Breaking The Cycle:

The Battered Woman's Survival Guide Jan Berliner Statman, 1995-04-01 The Battered Woman's Survival Guide is the most practical informative resource guide available for victims of domestic violence and for all those who want to help

SHELTERS FOR BATTERED WOMEN AND THEIR CHILDREN Albert L. Shostack, 2000-01-01 Having made enormous strides since the first shelters for battered women opened in the 1970s these institutions are still planned and operated according to local needs regulations and resources There are however a number of universal standards or guidelines for shelter planners boards staffs and volunteers The author has interviewed a number of individuals whose work is dedicated to shelters for battered women and their children and he supplements those interviews with additional research This volume compiles his research through an exploration of current statistics on shelter operations current assistance opportunities for shelters and the women who turn to them for help and some current realities of shelter life What works and what does not work under the widely varied conditions of actual shelters is explored in terms of setting up a new facility potential internal and outreach services staffing and volunteers required for 24 hour operations budgeting issues and funding sources admissions processing and counseling of residents and overview of shelter life including daily routines health care and security issues and the preparation of residents for new lives on their own

Woman-battering Carol J. Adams, Written by a new generation of recognized experts in pastoral care these brief foundational books offer practical advice to pastors on the most frequent dilemmas of pastoral care and counseling

Teaching to Transcend Cheryl L. Sattler, 2000-07-27 Teaching to Transcend explores a particular kind of safe space for the education of women domestic violence shelters Women in shelters are literally taught concepts from self worth to financial management parenting and feminist values of equality and rights They also learn more subtly through counseling interaction and affirmation of their own stories and survival The ways in which women in shelters are educated are based upon the concepts of feminist pedagogy such as intent listening empowering voice and radical social action Teaching to Transcend expands both the concept of feminist spaces and feminist pedagogy and our understanding of the connections between education and politics particularly the political economy of social knowledge and non school based education spaces

Re-reading Jose Martí (1853-1895) Julio Rodriguez-Luis, 1999-06-24 Re evaluates Jose Marti's contribution to Latin America's literature and political evolution

The A-Z of Death and Dying Michael John Brennan, 2014-02-17 This engaging and informative resource provides readers with an understanding of the social cultural and historical influences that shape our encounters with death dying and bereavement a universal experience across humanity Written in an engaging and accessible style by leading international scholars and practitioners from within the field of death and bereavement studies this book will have broad appeal providing in a single volume insights from some of the key thinkers within the interdisciplinary field of death dying and bereavement Its approximately 200 entries will serve as useful starting points for those new to the topic and will be informative to those already acquainted with some of the core concepts and ideas within this burgeoning field of inquiry This encyclopedia will serve as an essential resource for high school and undergraduate students those engaged in independent research and professionals whose work involves caring for the dead dying and bereaved It will also be of great interest to general readers intrigued by the social medical and cultural dimensions to human mortality Underscored by the inescapable biological certainties that affect us all The A Z of Death and Dying offers a highly relevant examination of the social and historical variation in the rituals practices and beliefs surrounding the end of life

Introduction to Social Work, Fourth Edition

Ira Colby, Sophia F. Dziegielewska, 2015-06 There are certain questions that all students considering social work ask Who are social workers What is it that social workers do How is the social work profession changing What does it take to become a social worker Ira Colby and Sophia Dziegielewska bring their decades of experience in social work practice and education to answer these questions This engaging text gives readers a practical guide to the many ways in which social workers effect change in their communities and the world The authors offer an overview and history of the profession introduce readers to the practice of social work at the micro mezzo and macro level and finally look closely at the many settings and populations that social workers work with While realistically portraying the pressures and obstacles that social workers face Colby and Dziegielewska communicate their own passion for social work

Bringing Peace Home Karen Warren, Duane L. Cady, 1996

This collection of works is ambitious well documented thoroughly though not turgidly referenced and comprehensively indexed It is deeply disturbing and deeply engaging Australian Feminist Studies Contributors discuss the subtle and complex relationships between various notions of feminism and peace Feminist peace issues are explored along a wide spectrum of personal and political issues from the personal violations of rape incest and domestic abuse to the violence of racism sexism economic exploitation war and genocide

Cruelty to Animals and Interpersonal Violence Geoffrey Ribbens, 1997 Contains 46 articles by various authors concerned with cruelty to animals and how that relates to violent human relations

Confronting Violence George A. Gellert, 2019-03-01 This book is a definitive reference work and a call to action written with a public health physician's eye for public safety and a scientist's evenhanded respect for evidence It is intended for professionals who interact with or provide services to people affected by violence
