The Golden Age Musicals of Darryl F. Zanuck Bernard F. Dick, 2022-03-30 Beginning with The Jazz Singer 1927 and 42nd Street 1933 legendary Hollywood film producer Darryl F. Zanuck 1902-1979 revolutionized the movie musical cementing its place in American popular culture Zanuck who got his start writing stories and scripts in the silent film era worked his way to becoming a top production executive at Warner Bros in the later 1920s and early 1930s Leaving that studio in 1933 he and industry executive Joseph Schenck formed Twentieth Century Pictures an independent Hollywood motion picture production company In 1935 Zanuck merged his Twentieth Century Pictures with the ailing Fox Film Corporation resulting in the combined Twentieth Century Fox which instantly became a new major Hollywood film entity The Golden Age Musicals of Darryl F. Zanuck The Gentleman Preferred Blondes is the first book devoted to the musicals that Zanuck produced at these three studios The volume spotlights how he placed his personal imprint on the genre and how especially at Twentieth Century Fox he nurtured and showcased several blonde female stars who headlined the studio's musicals including Shirley Temple Alice Faye Betty Grable Vivian Blaine June Haver Marilyn Monroe and Sheree North Building upon Bernard F. Dick's previous work in That Was Entertainment: The Golden Age of the MGM Musical this volume illustrates the richness of the American movie musical tracing how these song and dance films fit within the career of Darryl F. Zanuck and within the timeline of Hollywood history Feminism and the Western in Film and Television Mark E. Wildermuth, 2018-04-17

This book works to complicate and push against common arguments that the Western from its inception is an anti-feminist genre By focusing on representations of women professionals in Westerns it shows that women in cinematic and televisual Westerns sometimes do acquire agency and empowerment in the private and public realms despite our culture's tendency to gender the former as feminine and the latter as solely masculine The study reviews the relationship of these progressive Westerns to both explicit and latent feminist ideologies relevant to their times as the films evolved from the 1930s to the twenty-first century Too Funny for Words David Kalat, 2019-04-26 American silent film comedies were dominated by sight gags stunts and comic violence With the advent of sound comedies in the 1930s were a riot of runaway heiresses and fast talking screwballs It was more than a technological pivot the first feature length sound film The Jazz Singer 1927 changed Hollywood Lost in the discussion of that transition is the overlap between the two genres Charlie Chaplin Buster Keaton and Harold Lloyd kept slapstick alive well into the sound era Screwball directors like Leo McCarey Frank Capra and

Ernst Lubitsch got their starts in silent comedy From Chaplin s tramp to the witty repartee of His Girl Friday 1940 this book chronicles the rise of silent comedy and its evolution into screwball two flavors of the same genre through the works of Mack Sennett Roscoe Arbuckle Harry Langdon and others
