

Enter The Rolex Awards for Enterprise and help make it a reality.

Originality; imagination, and innovation. Ideas displaying these qualities have always been at the heart of the success of Rolex themselves.

In 1926, Rolex perfected the Oyster case making possible the world's first truly waterproof wristwatch.

Then came the forerunner of all modern self-winding wristwatches, the Rolex Perpetual rotor mechanisms.

Then the first wrist chronometer displaying both the day and the date.

Then the first specialised watch for deep-sea divers.

Achievements made possible by individual initiative, technical expertise and imagination. A policy Rolex will always pursue.

250,000 Swiss Francs for real help and assistance.

Rolex would now like to assist pioneers in their own fields of study with this third Rolex Awards for Enterprise.

Five self-motivated people with the imagination and initiative to start their own original projects will each receive an award of 50,000 Swiss Francs to further their ideas. In addition, each will receive a specially inscribed gold Rolex Chronometer.

The project should be in one of three categories: Applied Sciences and Invention; Exploration and Discovery; The Environment.

A distinguished international committee has been specially selected to judge the entries.
