Muslim Perceptions and Receptions of the Bible Camilla Adang, Sabine Schmidtke, 2019-07-24 The articles brought together in this volume deal with Muslim perceptions and uses of the Bible in its wider sense including the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament as well as the New Testament albeit with an emphasis on the former scripture While Muslims consider the earlier revelations to the People of the Book to have been altered to some extent by the Jews and the Christians and abrogated by the Qur'an God's final dispensation to humankind the Bible is at the same time venerated in view of its divine origin and questioning this divine origin is tantamount to unbelief Muslim scholars approached and used the Bible for a variety of purposes and in different ways Thus Muslim historians regularly relied on biblical materials as their primary source for the pre-Islamic period when discussing the creation as well as the history of the Israelites and the prophets preceding Muhammad Authors seeking to polemicize against Jews and Christians were primarily interested in the presumed biblical annunciations of Muhammad and his religion and or in perceived contradictions and cases of internal abrogation in the Bible These various concerns resulted from and had an impact on the ways in which Muslim authors accessed the scriptures

Reading the Bible in Islamic Context Daniel Crowther, Shirin Shafaie, Ida Glaser, Shabbir Akhtar, 2017-11-08 In the current political and social climate there is increasing demand for a deeper understanding of Muslims the Qur'an and Islam as well as a keen demand among Muslim scholars to explore ways of engaging with Christians theologically culturally and socially This book explores the ways in which an awareness of Islam and the Qur'an can change the way in which the Bible is read. The contributors come from both Muslim and Christian backgrounds, bring various levels of commitment to the Qur'an and the Bible as Scripture, and often have significantly different perspectives. The first section of the book contains chapters that compare the report of an event in the Bible with a report of the same event in the Qur'an. The second section addresses Muslim readings of the Bible and biblical tradition and looks at how Muslims might regard the Bible. Can they recognise it as Scripture? If so, what does that mean, and how does it relate to the Qur'an as Scripture? Similarly, how might Christian readers regard the Qur'an? The final section explores different analogies for understanding the Bible in relation to the Qur'an. The book concludes with a reflection upon the particular challenges that await Muslim scholars who seek to respond to Jewish and Christian understandings of the Jewish and Christian scriptures. A pioneering venture into intertextual reading, this book has important implications for relationships between Christians and Muslims. It will be of significant value to scholars of both Biblical and Qur'anic Studies, as well as any Muslim seeking to deepen their understanding of the Bible, and any Christian looking to transform the way in which they read the Bible.
