Practical Marketing for the Academic Library Stephanie Espinoza Villamor, Kimberly Shotick, 2022-05-24 This down to earth book offers practical marketing solutions for reaching students faculty and administration in community college and university libraries based on real world examples of team based communication and practice In an age in which federal funding for libraries is being cut libraries of every size and type must prove their value Practical Marketing for the Academic Library offers academic librarians approachable methods for marketing to students faculty and administration and it also inspires them to attempt new structures for marketing initiatives including encouraging existing staff to form teams with wide ranges of skills Librarians from all academic libraries including at community colleges can incorporate these ideas even when budgets are tight and staff is limited While there are many books on library marketing few specifically cover the diversity within academic institutions and the student body as well as how to target marketing to faculty and administrations Villamor and Shotick approach library marketing from diverse perspectives and teach readers how to increase student engagement assess library programs and connect library marketing to the goals of the overall institution

The Idea of America Darren Walker, 2025-08-26 Darren Walker has lived the promise of America Born to a single mother in a Louisiana charity hospital the pride of Head Start and public schools in rural East Texas Walker serves today as the tenth President of the Ford Foundation among the largest private foundations in the United States Since 2013 he has overseen more than 7 billion in grantmaking while transforming philanthropy and inspiring conversations about and commitments to democratic values and institutions around the world As Walker writes I have lived on both sides of American inequality And I know all too personally that the distance between the two has never been greater In The Idea of America Reflections on Inequality Democracy and the Values We Share Walker argues that we can narrow our widening divides by rediscovering our common aspirations and common good With an original foreword by President William Jefferson Clinton this prescient timely compendium introduces us to an essential leader of and for our moment in his own words through his most essential reflections essays and speeches Across 97 selected pieces many published here for the first time Walker shares from his Uniquely American story and extraordinary life s journey Bold leadership of the Ford Foundation whose efforts and assets he marshaled to uproot inequalities of all kinds Audacious vision for a philanthropy that prioritizes justice beyond generosity and that practices a new Gospel of Wealth for our new gilded age Lifelong passion for arts and culture wellsprings of empathy and of social change Trailblazing advocacy for a more democratic capitalism which ensures that where markets lead justice follows Urgent reaffirmation of America s enduring promise that from many we are one and that all deserve dignity fairness and opportunity Ultimately Walker calls for courageous moral leadership from us all challenging us to step back from the extremes to lean into nuance and complexity and to build longer bridges Hope Walker affirms is the oxygen of democracy The Idea of America gives powerful testimony to all that is possible if we renew our fidelity to the values that bind us both despite and because of our differences

International commissions and the power of ideas Editors: Ramesh Thakur,2006 Stories of Inclusion? Deborah A. Piatelli,2009-01-16 Why are some white middle class activists experiencing difficulty creating alliances across racial and class differences What are the obstacles and what is being done to overcome them What type of movement structures cultures and practices can best facilitate inter racial inter class solidarity Stories of Inclusion explores these questions through an ethnographic study of a predominately white middle class contemporary peace and justice network that is working to create a racially and class diverse community of activists Addressing a very significant and greatly under researched topic Stories of Inclusion raises important and critical questions for the peace movement as well as larger society In accessible prose this study bridges the literatures of social movement theory critical race studies and feminist theory and offers new insight into how power and privilege can affect the process of creating inclusive communities Drawing on data the author collected through in depth interviews interpretive focus groups and over two years of participant observation this study explores how white middle class privilege influences political analyses definitions of peace work and approaches to alliance building The findings are compelling and reveal that even those who have developed an oppositional political consciousness and have pledged to work across racial and class divides can still foster exclusive organizing practices This study also offers examples on how some activists are acknowledging privilege transforming their worldviews and beginning to establish fruitful relationships across differences This important work emphasizes the continuing importance of race for those collective actors attempting to construct inclusive movements across diverse groups while also offering important practical solutions on how to bridge differences The conclusion offers a framework for building a new agenda for the peace and justice movement

Latino Identity in Contemporary America Martin Bulmer,John Solomos,2014-01-02 This edited collection brings together original research papers that explore an important aspect of race and ethnic studies namely the processes that are shaping the making of Latina and Latino identities in contemporary America This is a question that has received much attention in the USA over the past decade and these papers make an original contribution to these debates Much of this attention towards Latino a communities in the USA can be seen as the outcome of public debates about the growth of these communities over the past three decades and the consequences of this growth for social and political change The papers in this collection highlight some of the key facets of contemporary research in this field As original pieces of research they are at the forefront of current debates about Latino a identities in contemporary America and they provide research based insights into the changing experiences of these communities This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies The Rotarian ,2000-08 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Making Community Design Work Umut Toker,2017-11-08 Since the earliest settlements people have deliberated the issues that affect their future together Making Community Design Work shows how planners can guide the process toward effective decision making and beneficial community design This well crafted book distills decades of community design experience into a sound conceptual framework of value to practicing planners as well as planning students Umut Toker covers a broad range of planning scales and introduces field tested tools for participatory decision making at regional city community and site specific levels To succeed any planning project must address both the physical space and its users From setting goals to evaluating results Making Community Design Work helps planners navigate the process of creating environments that meet the needs of the people they serve Oversight on Area Agency on Aging Concept, 1974 United States.
