The Passion Of Ingmar Bergman:

The Passion of Ingmar Bergman Frank Gado,1986 The Passion of Ingmar Bergman Frank Gado,1986

Acknowledged as one of the greatest filmmakers of this or any other time Bergman has with few exceptions written his own screenplays an uncommon practice in the film industry and for this practice critics refer to him as a literary filmmaker In this work Gado examines virtually the entire range of Bergman s literary output While treating the matter of the visual presentation of Bergman s films Gado concentrates on story and narrative and their relationship to Bergman s personal history Gado concludes that whatever the outward appearance of Bergman s works they contain an elementary psychic fantasy that links them all revealing an artist who hoped to be a dramatist the new Strindberg and who saw the camera as an extension of his pen Passion of Anna Bibi Andersson,Ingmar Bergman,Max von Sydow,Liv Ullmann,2004 Ingmar

address Ingmar Bergman s cinema through a broad array of classical and contemporary approaches Widely acclaimed around the world from the mid 1950s to the early 1980s Ingmar Bergman s films were often considered outmoded by the turn of the last century as exemplars of a long gone European art cinema However in more recent years his work has been reconsidered with fresh eyes recognized as speaking to global audiences about ideas of contemporary relevance such as the dysfunctions of personal romantic and family relations gender performance and sexual identity social engagement and

Gilmore,2016-10-12 In this volume Richard Gilmore explores film as a channel through which to engage in philosophical reflection and analyzes the relationship between philosophy and film This book argues that philosophy and film can and should be used for the amelioration of life s difficulties and the promotion of life s boons Gilmore identifies how philosophy and film complement and enrich one another and explores their relationship by connecting classic wisdom texts to significant movies For example the volume analyzes the Coen brothers films The Big Lebowski and A Serious Man in light of The Book of Job Gilmore considers the ancient idea of philosophy as spiritual exercise and a way of life The volume concludes by examining what the author labels sublime conversations as the highest expression of philosophy The book identifies and dissects these conversations in movies directed by the likes of Robert Bresson Yasujir Ozu Jean Luc Godard and Ingmar Bergman among others The Medieval Filmscape William F. Woods,2014-01-23 This book is an attempt at defining the genre of medieval film by describing its features and analyzing its effects and their significance there being few works presently available that work toward such definition There are three parts the introduction enters the medieval film world describing its typical features and showing how they create a convincing sense of its time three short chapters discuss authenticity simplicity and spectacle the roots of film medievalism and six longer chapters comment on individual films Works are discussed that extend the reach of the genre such as Dreyer s La Passion de Jeanne d Arc with its emotional range or Bergman s Seventh Seal which creates a universal symbolism The author describes what goes into a medieval film and how it affects its audience while offering suggestions about why its themes are meaningful to us Progress in Self

Psychology, V. 19 Mark J. Gehrie, 2013-05-13 The contributors to Explorations in Self Psychology volume 19 of the Progress in Self Psychology series wrestle with two interrelated questions at the nexus of contemporary discussions of technique How authentic and relationally invested should the self psychologically informed analyst be and what role should self disclosure play in the treatment process The responses to these questions embrace the full range of clinical possibilities Dudley and Walker argue that empathically based interpretation precludes self disclosure whereas Miller argues in favor of authentic self expression and against the self psychologist s frustrating attempt to decenter from frustration or anger Consideration of the utility of a consistently empathic stance continues with Weisel Barth s clinical presentation and the discussions that it elicits about management of her patient s primary destructiveness Lenoff s critical rereading of Kohut s Examination of the Relationship Between Mode of Observation and Theory and Rieveschl self psychological work with adolescents and Neville Symington s theory of narcissism Contributions to applied analysis explore topics as diverse as an exchange of dreams between John Adams and Benjamin Rush Mann s Death in Venice the films of Ingmar Bergman psychotherapy of the elderly and disabilities in the sensory motor integration in children And Volume 19 concludes with Constance Goldberg s candid and enlightening reminiscence of Heinz Kohut a very complex man with whom to be in a relationship The Cinema of Poetry

P. Adams Sitney, 2015 Informed by the criticism of iconic filmmaker Pier Pasolini The Cinema of Poetry offers spirited explorations of poetry s influence on classic films by Dimitri Kirsanoff Ingmar Bergman and Andrey Tarkovsky It also highlights how avant garde films made by Joseph Cornell Lawrence Jordan Jerome Hiler Gregory Markopoulos and others found rich unexpected sources of inspiration in a diverse group of poets that includes St phane Mallarm Emily Dickinson H D Ezra Pound Robert Duncan John Ashbery and Aeschylus Written with verve and panache it represents the culmination of P Adams Sitney s career long fascination with the intersection of poetry film and the avant garde Film - An International
