The Battle Of The Ironclads:

The Battle of the Ironclads John V. Quarstein, 1999 Battle of the Ironclads brings to life the dramatic events which occurred in Hampton Roads on March 8 and 9 1862 This first battle between armored vessels often called the Monitor Merrimack engagement is perhaps the most significant naval event of the entire Civil War This thrilling history is the first volume to offer a comprehensive pictorial interpretation of the men and ships that forever changed naval warfare Over 150 images including photographs engravings paintings and sketches have been gathered from museums archives and private collections to chronicle the exciting story of the U S S Monitor and the C S S Virginia Merrimack While Battle of the Ironclads is a visual history of the first battle between armored ships it is also a saga of uncommon valor and leadership epitomized by Franklin Buchanan George U Morris Samuel Dana Greene and John Taylor Wood The brilliant innovations of John Mercer Brooke and the farsighted inventions of John Ericsson made this showdown in Hampton Roads a death for wooden sailing ships Battle of the Ironclads is indeed an epic tale that tells how steam powered iron vessels not only influenced the Civil War but more importantly how the two ironclads echoed the dawn of modern navies The Battle of the Ironclads Charles River Editors, 2025-06-06 We of the Monitor think and still think that we had gained a great victory This the Confederates have denied S Dana Greene On March 8 1862 the newest era of naval warfare began That day the CSS Virginia an ironclad created out of the hull of the scuttled USS Merrimac by the Confederates sailed down the Elizabeth River to Hampton Roads where a Union blockade fleet was anchored The wooden ships of the North were no match for the ironclad which quickly rammed and sank the USS Cumberland and as it trained its sights on the USS Congress one Union officer noted the former Merrimac fired shot and shell into her with terrific effect while the shot from the Congress glanced from her iron plated sloping sides without doing any apparent injury The Merrimac had overwhelmingly demonstrated the superiority of the ironclad over the traditional frigates and gunships of the time but it met its match the following day On March 9 the North s ironclad the USS Monitor arrived to challenge the Confederate ironclad Though they were both outfitted with iron the two ships had important differences The Merrimac had more guns than the Monitor but was slower and more difficult to maneuver The Monitor however did not have the size and power Lieutenant S Dana Greene described the initial shots in the battle of the ironclads The turrets and other parts of the ship were heavily struck but the shots did not penetrate the tower was intact and it continued to revolve A look of confidence passed over the men s faces and we believed the Merrimac would not repeat the work she had accomplished the day before The two ironclads would fight to a stand still on that day but naval warfare would never be the same The Battle of the Ironclads The Monitor The Merrimac looks at the history of the ships the climactic battle and the aftermath of their fight Along with pictures and eyewitness accounts you will learn about the Battle of the Ironclads like you never have before in no time at all The Battle of the Ironclads: the Monitor and the Merrimac Charles River Charles River Editors, 2013-09-18 Includes Lieutenant S Dana Greene s account of the battle from Battles the tower was intact and it continued to revolve A look of confidence passed over the men s faces and we believed the Merrimac would not repeat the work she had accomplished the day before The two ironclads would fight to a stand still on that day but naval warfare would never be the same The Battle of the Ironclads The Monitor The Merrimac looks at the history of the ships the climactic battle and the aftermath of their fight Along with pictures and eyewitness accounts you will learn about the Battle of the Ironclads like you never have before in no time at all At the Battle of the Ironclads Matt Doeden,2018-02-01 This book explores various perspectives surrounding the Battle of Hampton Roads and the Battle of the Ironclads in the Civil War Readers are immersed in the action as their choices guide the narrative

Hampton Roads 1862 Angus Konstam,2002-04-25 This Osprey title examnies the first naval conflict of the American Civil War 1861 1865 On 9 March 1862 the world s first battle between two ironclad warships took place in the confined waters of Hampton Roads Virginia The previous day the Confederate ironclad CSS Virginia impervious to her enemy s guns had sunk two Union warships When she re emerged from Norfolk to complete the destruction of the Union blockading squadron the USS Monitor steamed out to meet her The four hour duel that ensued was a stalemate but crucially the Virginia had failed to break the Northern blockade of the Southern ports Nevertheless in a single battle these two vessels rendered wooden warships obsolete and transformed the face of naval warfare forever At the Battle of the Ironclads Matt

Doeden,2018-02-01 This book explores various perspectives surrounding the Battle of Hampton Roads and the Battle of the Ironclads in the Civil War Readers are immersed in the action as their choices guide the narrative The Monitor versus the Merrimac Dan Abnett,2006-08-15 In graphic format tells of the Civil War battle known as the Battle of Hampton Roads the first ever between ironclad warships Duel of the Ironclads Patrick O'Brien,2007-01-23 A description of the construction battles and historical impact of the Civil War battleships the Monitor and the Virginia known to Union forces as the Monitor and the Merrimack focuses on the Battle of Hampton Roads where it was evident that the age of wooden warships was gone forever Reprint Unlike Anything That Ever Floated Dwight Sturtevant Hughes,2021-04-06 A history of the American Civil War naval battle the first confrontation between two Ironclads featuring accounts from men who lived through it Ironclad against ironclad we maneuvered about the bay here and went at each other with mutual fierceness reported Chief Engineer Alban Stimers following that momentous engagement between the USS Monitor and the CSS Virginia ex USS Merrimack in Hampton Roads Sunday March 9 1862 The day before the Rebel ram had obliterated two powerful Union warships and was poised to destroy more That night the revolutionary not to say bizarre Monitor slipped into harbor after hurrying down from New York through fierce gales that almost sank her These metal monstrosities dueled in the morning pounding away for hours with little damage to either Who won is still debated One Vermont reporter could hardly find words for Monitor It is in fact unlike anything that ever floated on Neptune s bosom The little vessel became an icon of American industrial ingenuity and strength She redefined the relationship between men and machines in war But beforehand many feared she would not float Captain John L Worden Here was an unknown untried vessel an iron coffin like ship of which the gloomiest predictions were made The CSS Virginia was a paradigm of Confederate strategy and execution the brainchild of innovative dedicated and courageous men but the victim of hurried design untested technology poor planning and coordination and a dearth of critical resources Nevertheless she obsolesced the entire U S Navy threatened the strategically vital blockade and disrupted General McClellan s plans to take Richmond From flaming bloody decks of sinking ships to the dim confines of the first rotating armored turret to the smoky depths of a Rebel gundeck with shells screaming clanging booming and splashing all around to the office of a worried president with his cabinet peering down the Potomac for a Rebel monster this dramatic story unfolds through the accounts of men who lived it in Unlike Anything That Ever Floated Praise for Unlike Anything That Ever Floated Hughes s blow by blow account of the March 8 9 fighting at Hampton Roads can be considered among the finest short form narrative treatments of those events It resides in the top rank of ECW series volumes Civil War Books and Authors What makes Hughes s account so engrossing is that it is written in much the way as a novel Civil War News A History of Ironclads: The Power of Iron Over Wood John V. Quarstein, 2007-02 One of history s greatest naval engagements the Battle of Hampton Roads occurred on March 8 and 9 1862 On the first morning the Confederate ironclad the CSS Virginia formerly known as the Merrimack sank two Union wooden warships proving the power of the armored vessels over the traditional sailing ships The next morning the Virginia engaged the Union ironclad USS Monitor to a draw in a battle that significantly altered naval warfare It was the first engagement between ironclads and ushered in a new era of warship construction and ordnance The 25 000 sailors soldiers and civilians who witnessed the battle knew then what history would soon confirm wars waged on the waters would never be the same The seemingly invincible Monitor and Virginia were experimental ships revolutionary combinations of new and old technology and their clash on March 9 1862 was the culmination of over 2 000 years of naval experience The construction and combat service of ironclads during the Civil War were the first in a cascade of events that influenced the outcome of the war and prompted the development of improved ironclads as well as the creation of new weapons systems such as torpedoes and submarines needed to counter modern armored warships
