The Battle Stalin Lost Memoirs Of Yugoslavia 1948 1953:

The Battle Stalin Lost Vladimir Dedijer, 1978 The Battle Stalin Lost Vladimir Dedijer, 1978 The East European Economy in Context David Turnock, 2003-09-02 Since 1989 the former communist countries of Eastern Europe have witnessed a profound and dramatic upheaval The economic coherence of this region formerly maintained through the adoption of the Soviet system of government has fractured In The East European Economy in Context Communism and Transition David Turnock examines the transition from communist to free market economies both within and between the states of Eastern Europe As well as containing an informative survey of the impact of communism The East European Economy in Context provides Political profiles of individual countries A clear study of the contrasts between northern and balkan groups Summaries of regional variations in the transition process An exploration of the new state structures and resources Discussion of political stability inter ethnic tensions and progress in economic change The Three Yugoslavias Sabrina P. Ramet, 2006-06-06 Based on extensive archival research and fieldwork and the culmination of more than two decades of study The Three Yugoslavias is a major contribution to an understanding of Yugoslavia and its successor states

Socialist Unemployment Susan L. Woodward, 2020-10-06 In the first political analysis of unemployment in a socialist country Susan Woodward argues that the bloody conflicts that are destroying Yugoslavia stem not so much from ancient ethnic hatreds as from the political and social divisions created by a failed socialist program to prevent capitalist joblessness Under Communism the concept of socialist unemployment was considered an oxymoron when it appeared in postwar Yugoslavia it was dismissed as illusory or as a transitory consequence of Yugoslavia's unorthodox experiments with worker managed firms In Woodward's view however it was only a matter of time before countries in the former Soviet bloc caught up with Yugoslavia confronting the same unintended consequences of economic reforms required to bring socialist states into the world economy By 1985 Yugoslavia's unemployment rate had risen to 15 percent How was it that a labor oriented government managed to tolerate so clear a violation of the socialist commitment to full employment Proposing a politically based model to explain this paradox Woodward analyzes the ideology of economic growth and shows that international constraints rather than organized political pressures defined government policy She argues that unemployment became politically invisible owing to its redefinition in terms of guaranteed subsistence and political exclusion with the result that it corrupted and ultimately dissolved the authority of all political institutions Forced to balance domestic policies aimed at sustaining minimum standards of living and achieving productivity growth against the conflicting demands of the world economy and national security the leadership inadvertently recreated the social relations of agrarian communities within a postindustrial society History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800-1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region's literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

Realm of the Black Mountain Elizabeth Roberts, 2024-10-24 Montenegro was admitted to the UN as its 192nd member in June 2006 thus recovering the independence it had lost nearly ninety years earlier at the Versailles Peace Conference This is the first full length history of the country in English for a century tracing the history of the tiny Balkan state from its earliest roots in the medieval empire of Zeta through its consistently ambiguous and frequently problematic relationship with its larger neighbour Serbia the emergence of a priest warrior ruler in the shape of the Vladika and its emergence from Ottoman suzerainty at the Congress of Berlin In more recent history the book focuses on Montenegro's troubled twentieth century its prominent role in the Balkan wars its unique deletion from world maps as an independent state despite being on the winning side in the Great War its ignominious role in the wars leading to the disintegration of Yugoslavia and its final reemergence as a member of the international community on the anniversary of the Battle of Kosovo in 2006 Since independence Montenegro has grappled with the question of Euro Atlantic integration including membership of NATO achieved and the EU applicant Even as it has fought to define its identity it has gone from being one of the poorest nations in the Western Balkans to having the highest per capita income of the region It successfully navigated democratic transition in 2020

Problems of Communism, 1971 Postwar Tony Judt, 2006-09-05 Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Winner of the Council on Foreign Relations Arthur Ross Book Award One of the New York Times's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century Impressive Mr Judt writes with enormous authority The Wall Street Journal Magazine It is without a doubt the most comprehensive authoritative and yes readable postwar history The Boston Globe Almost a decade in the making this much anticipated grand history of postwar Europe from one of the world's most esteemed historians and intellectuals is a singular achievement Postwar is the first modern history that covers all of Europe both east and west drawing on research in six languages to sweep readers through thirty four nations and sixty years of political and cultural change all in one integrated enthralling narrative Both intellectually ambitious and compelling to read thrilling in its scope and delightful in its small details Postwar is a rare joy Comrades! Robert Service, 2007 Service offers a history of communism drawing the uncomfortable conclusion that the poverty and injustice that enabled its rise are still dangerously alive Unsettling and compelling this is a comprehensive study of one of the most important movements of the modern world
