The Bible's Big Story-- Our Story H. N. Wendt, 2005-01-01      How to Read the Bible Well Stephen

Burnhope, 2021-04-23 How to Read the Bible Well takes on the big questions about the Bible that we've always wanted to ask: What do people mean when they say it's the Word of God? In what way exactly? How can an ancient world text be offering supposedly timeless truths? Can we really take what the Bible says as authoritative for life today? Isn't it obviously sexist and outdated? Do we have to believe in Adam and Eve and the world being made in six days? Why did God command genocide in the Old Testament? Are people really going to burn in hell for eternity? Why is there evil and suffering in the world? And how can we explain the Big Story of the Bible from cover to cover in ways that will make sense to people today? Stephen Burnhope suggests there are very good answers to all of these questions and more once we know how to read the Bible well.

Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli, 2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry, Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible. Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying, an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling, creative reflection, and dialogue. He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative. In 2012, Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo, the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying. Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible. In this book, you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages, testimonials from people using this approach, tools to create your own Bible storying narratives, and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach.

The Mission of God's People Christopher J. H. Wright, 2010-09-07 What does the Bible say about God's purpose for us, the witness of the church, and our mission to spread the message of the gospel? Chris Wright's pioneering 2006 book The Mission of God revealed that the typical Christian understanding of missions encompasses only a small part of God's overarching mission for the world. God is relentlessly reclaiming the whole of creation for himself, and each of us fits into that big picture plan. In The Mission of God's People, Wright argues that having a strong biblical theology that shapes our thinking and behavior must be in place before answering the call of the Great Commission. Wright first steps back and answers some of the biggest questions of God's story and our place within it: Who are the people of God? What kind of people are we? What are the priorities and limits of our mission? What exactly is the gospel that lies at the core of our mission? What was it that made Christianity a missionary faith from the very start? While answering these essential questions, Wright thoroughly details what the Old and New Testaments teach Christians about being God's people. He addresses questions of both ecclesiology (the theology of the church) and missiology (the practice and methodology of missions) with topics like: called to care for creation, called to bless the nations, sending and being sent, and rejecting false gods. _____ Part of the Biblical Theology for Life series, this practical and robust book will help you and your church ground your witness.

Mulder,2025-09-18 Are the machines taking over Artificial intelligence suddenly seems to be everywhere including in the world of education With new AI powered tools popping up every day it s no wonder that educators might feel overwhelmed How can we navigate the strange new world of AI without losing our humanity or our sense of humor Blending thoughtful theology practical wisdom and a deep love for teaching this book invites educators to reflect on big questions What does it mean to be a real human in an age of artificial intelligence What tools should we adopt and which ones should we avoid and how can we decide How do we stay grounded in the gospel story while adapting to emerging technologies Rather than offering easy answers or alarmist warnings let s consider an approach that is curious and courageous developing a hopeful vision for education that forms both minds and hearts Standing on the truth of Scripture and keeping a finger on the tech pulse this book helps Christian educators practice thinking faithfully acting ethically and teaching joyfully even when algorithms are everywhere Teaching Christianly with technology isn t about keeping up with the latest tools and trends it s about being the humans God created us to be      Liturgical Mission Winfield Bevins,2022-09-20 Modern missional movements have often viewed the historic

Christian traditions as too insular focused on worship and the interior life of the church rather than evangelism and good works Winfield Bevins argues that liturgy and sacramental life are in fact deeply missional and offer a holistic framework for everyday discipleship and mission     Panorama of the New Testament Stephen J. Binz, 2019-05-10 Beginning with the Gospels and Acts and continuing through the letters and final book of the Bible Panorama of the New Testament invites us into familiar scenes but with a wide angle lens to capture the big picture For newcomers to Bible study this is a wonderful place to begin to put the pieces together for seasoned Bible students this study identifies major themes that emerge throughout the New Testament books Commentary study and reflection questions prayer and access to online lectures are included 4 lessons     Face to Face Marty Folsom, 2016-08-31 Like falling in love this book argues that a relationship with God begins with surprise proceeds with discovery and shapes a life that comes to share a story of love This book does not describe God but pursues the nature of personally relating with the triune God Consequently it also engages how we relate with humans made in God's image We finish the Face to Face series with this most mysterious and fulfilling encounter a personal engagement with the Relational God known as a community of persons who invite us to share in their life
