Plantation Trilogy Gwen Bristow, 1962 Entitled to the Pedestal Nghana tamu Lewis, 2007-04 In this searching study Nghana Lewis offers a close reading of the works and private correspondences essays and lectures of five southern white women writers Julia Peterkin Gwen Bristow Caroline Gordon Willa Cather and Lillian Smith At the core of this work is a sophisticated reexamination of the myth of southern white womanhood Lewis overturns the conventional argument that white women were passive and pedestal bound Instead she argues that these figures were complicit in the day to day dynamics of power and authorship and stood to gain much from these arrangements at the expense of others At the same time that her examination of southern mythology explodes received wisdom it is also a journey of self discovery As Lewis writes in her preface As a proud daughter of the South I have always been acutely aware of the region's rich cultural heritage folks and foodstuffs How could I not be I was born and reared in Lafayette Louisiana where an infant s first words are not da da and ma ma but crawfish boil and fais do do I have also always been keenly familiar with its volatile history Where these conflicting images and specifically the role of white southern women as catalysts vindicators abettors and antagonists meet forms the crux of this study As such this study of the South by a daughter of the South offers a distinctive perspective that illuminates the texts in novel and provocative ways Gwen Bristow Gwen Bristow,1940* The imperial guide, with picturesque plans of the great post-roads James Baker (topographer.),1802 Paterson's Roads ...
