

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a woman with blonde hair, wearing a dark red velvet dress with white trim at the sleeves and hem, riding a dark horse. The horse is galloping through a field, kicking up a cloud of dust. In the lower right foreground, there is a silhouette of a person wearing a wide-brimmed hat, looking out over a field of tall grass and shrubs under a warm, golden light, suggesting sunset or sunrise.

Gardening for Love Elizabeth Lawrence,1988-06-27 Elizabeth

Lawrence occupies a secure place in the pantheon of twentieth century gardening writers that includes Gertrude Jekyll and Vita Sackville West of Great Britain and Katherine S White of the United States Her books such as A Southern Garden 1942 and The Little Bulbs 1957 remain in print continuing to win praise from critics and to delight an ever widening circle of readers In Gardening for Love Lawrence reveals another world of garden writing the world of the rural women of the South with whom she corresponded extensively from the late 1950s into the mid 1970s in response to their advertisements for herbs and ornamental perennials in several market bulletins published by state departments of agriculture for the benefit of farmers It was Eudora Welty who awakened Elizabeth Lawrence's interest in this fascinating topic by putting her name on the mailing list of The Mississippi Market Bulletin a twice monthly collection of classified advertisements founded in 1928 and still published today Lawrence soon discovered market bulletins from the Carolinas and other Southern states as well as similar bulletins published privately in the North She began ordering plants from the bulletins and there ensued a lively exchange of letters with the women who sold them Gardening for Love is Lawrence's exploration of this little known side of American horticulture and her affectionate tribute to country people who shared her passion for plants Drawing on the letters she received sometimes a great many of them from the same persons over many years she delves into traditional plant lore herbal remedies odd and often highly poetic vernacular plant names peculiar to particular regions of the South and the herb collectors of the mountains of the Carolinas and Georgia She focuses primarily on the Southeast and the Deep South but her wide knowledge of both literature and botany gives Gardening for Love a dimension that transcends the category of regional writing
