The Last Trek A New Beginning The Autobiography:

The Last Trek-- a New Beginning Frederik Willem De Klerk, 1999 The Last Trek A New Beginning is a frank and revealing autobiography that reflects both the author and his role during a remarkable period in history On becoming State President of South Africa in 1989 F W de Klerk set about dismantling apartheid By releasing Nelson Mandela from prison in February 1990 he set in motion a chain of events which would lead to the first fully democratic elections in South Africa s history This is the long awaited inside story of the South African miracle by the man who sacrificed his own power to make it happen De Klerk relates numerous anecdotes personal behind the scenes observations and impressions of Mandela as well as other figures who have dominated recent South African history He also provides a fascinating insight into the workings of power and the mechanics of historic change

The Plot to Save South Africa Justice Malala, 2024-04-09 Johannesburg Easter weekend 1993 Nelson Mandela and FW de Klerk are in slow moving negotiations over power sharing when a white supremacist shoots Mandela s popular heir apparent Chris Hani in the hope of igniting an all out civil war In The Plot to Save South Africa acclaimed journalist Justice Malala recounts the riveting story of the next nine days revealing rarely seen sides of both Mandela and de Klerk the fascinating behind the scenes debates within each of their parties over whether to pursue peace or war and their desperate attempts to restrain their supporters despite mounting discontent

The Territorial Management of Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 2004-08-02 The object of this book is to look at the manner in which states attempt to cope with ethnic conflict through territorial approaches This revised edition has new chapters covering Northern Ireland South Africa and Yugoslavia

International Mediation in the South African Transition Zwelethu Jolobe, 2019-04-09 This book challenges the conventional understanding of South Africa s transition to democracy as a home grown process through a comparative analysis of Commonwealth and United Nations mediation attempts Approaching power transition through the lens of South Africa Zwelethu Jolobe raises questions about how methods and types of mediation are understood and their appropriateness for certain stages of negotiation processes International Mediation in the South African Transition calls into question the generalisations about the determinants of success by international third parties in resolving internal conflicts It moves from the position that the success of a mediation effort depends on the examination of the time horizon of a conflict and on the contribution the mediation effort plays in improving the relationship between the belligerents The book argues that the international community particularly the Commonwealth and the United Nations played a profound and beneficial role in the political transition to end apartheid International Mediation in the South African Transition will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics conflict resolution international relations and global governance

Can We Survive Our Origins? Pierpaolo Antonello, Paul Gifford, 2015-01-01 Are religions intrinsically violent as is strenuously argued by the new atheists Or as Girard argues have they been functionally rational instruments developed to manage and cope with the intrinsically violent runaway dynamic that characterizes human social organization in all periods of human history Is violence decreasing in this time of secular modernity post Christendom as argued by Steven Pinker and others Or are we rather at increased and even apocalyptic risk from our enhanced powers of action and our decreased socio symbolic protections Rene Girard s mimetic theory has been slowly but progressively recognized as one of the most striking breakthrough contributions to twentieth century critical thinking in fundamental anthropology in particular for its power to model and explain violent sacralities ancient and modern The present volume sets this power of explanation in an evolutionary and Darwinian frame It asks How far do cultural mechanisms of controlling violence which allowed humankind to cross the threshold of hominization i e to survive and develop in its evolutionary emergence still represent today a default setting that threatens to destroy us Can we transcend them and escape their field of gravity Should we look to or should we look beyond Darwinian survival What and where if anywhere is salvation

The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu,2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor

A Rainbow in the Night Dominique Lapierre,2009-11-03 In 1652 a small group of Dutch farmers landed on the southernmost tip of Africa Sent by the powerful Dutch India Company their mission was simply to grow vegetables and supply ships rounding the cape The colonists however were convinced by their strict Calvinist faith that they were among God s Elect chosen to rule over the continent Their saga bloody ferocious and fervent would culminate three centuries later in one of the greatest tragedies of history the establishment of a racist regime in which a white minority would subjugate and victimize millions of blacks Called apartheid it was a poisonous system that would only end with the liberation from prison of one of the moral giants of our time Nelson Mandela A Rainbow in the Night is Dominique Lapierre s epic account of South Africa s tragic history and the heroic men and women famous and obscure white and black European and African who have with their blood and tears brought to life the country that is today known as the Rainbow Nation

Ending Apartheid Jack Spence,David Welsh,2014-06-06 The release of Nelson Mandela from twenty seven years imprisonment in 1990 and the free elections which followed four years later were among the most dramatic events of the twentieth century David Welsh and J E Spence here examine the complex forces which lay behind that drama They chart the rise and decline of apartheid ideology in South Africa the internal insurrection and increased international isolation which characterised the 1980s and the political roller coaster ride of the period after 1990 as constitutional negotiations got underway Based on extensive interviews with those involved Ending Apartheid traces the negotiating process in penetrating detail noting the political skills of de Klerk and Mandela in keeping their potentially unruly constituencies in line and avoiding the major violence that many had predicted Reaching agreement on a democratic constitution was a major achievement that surprised many sceptical observers but the book ends on a more sombre note Reviewing the period subsequent to the transition it argues that while progress has been made the future of South Africa's democracy is still far from assured. Written by two eminent scholars with decades of experience teaching in the field, Ending Apartheid is an invaluable resource for all students of South African politics seeking a deeper understanding of a defining episode in recent history.

The Fate of Africa Martin Meredith, 2011-09-06 The definitive story of African nations after they emerged from colonialism from Mugabe's doomed kleptocracy to Mandela's inspiring defeat of apartheid The Fate of Africa has been hailed by reviewers as A masterpiece The nonfiction book of the year The New York Post a magnificent achievement Weekly Standard a joy Wall Street Journal and one of the decade's most important works on Africa Publishers Weekly starred review.
