The Overseas Expansion of Capital Andreï Andreevich Gromyko, 1985 The United States, the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War Nicolas Lewkowicz, 2018-10-30 The United States the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War 1945 1949 describes how the United States and the Soviet Union deployed their hard and soft power resources to create the basis for the institutionalization of the international order in the aftermath of World War Two The book argues that the origins of the Cold War should not be seen from the perspective of a magnified spectrum of conflict but should be regarded as a process by which the superpowers attempted to forge a normative framework capable of sustaining their geopolitical needs and interests in the post war scenario The United States the Soviet Union and the Geopolitical Implications of the Origins of the Cold War 1945 1949 examines how the use of ideology and the instrument of political intervention in the spheres of influence managed by the superpowers were conducive to the establishment of a stable international order It postulates that the element of conflict present in the early period of the Cold War served to demarcate the scope of manoeuvring available to each of the superpowers and studies the notion that the United States and the Soviet Union were primarily interested in establishing the conditions for the accomplishment of their vital geostrategic interests This required the implementation of social norms imposed in the respective spheres of influence a factor that provided certainty to the spectrum of interstate relations after the period of turmoil that culminated with the onset of World War Two The Past, Present and Future of International Business and Management Timothy Devinney, Torben Pedersen, Laszlo Tihanyi, 2010-07-27 A volume that concentrates on the substantive gaps in the IB IM field and addresses whether these gaps are resolvable with the theoretical and methodological toolkit Politics and Ideology in Marxist Theory Ernesto Laclau, 2012-01-16 Ernesto Laclau is best known for co authoring Hegemony and Socialist Strategy with Chantal Mouffe Politically active in the social and student movements of the 1960s and a member of PSIN Socialist Party of the National Left Laclau s oeuvre links the working class and new social movements Rejecting Marxist economic determinism and the notion of class struggle Laclau instead urged for a radical democracy where antagonisms could be expressed Frequently described as post Marxist Laclau s writings have focused on political movements Politics and Ideology in Marxist Theory was Laclau s first published work where readers can trace the early formation of ideas that shaped the twentieth century City Bankers, 1890-1914 Youssef Cassis, 1994-09-15 City Bankers 1890 1914 is a major contribution to a controversial area of economic history and to the debate about the nature of British society in the late Victorian and Edwardian eras It provides a detailed analysis of the banking community of London between 1890 and 1914 when the City of London was the undisputed financial centre of the world The Open Economy Macromodel: Past, Present and Future Arie Arnon, Warren Young, 2012-12-06 The impetus for the conference that was the basis for this volume emanated from the influence of two brilliant minds Egon Sohmen and Adam Klug who both died at an early age leaving their families and the professions of economics and economic history with major voids In the course of research on the origins of Open Economy Macroeconomics the significant contributions of Egon Sohmen came to the fore After correspondence with some of those involved in the early development of the Open Economy Macromodel we turned to Adam Klug for his views on the matter as he had dealt with the history of intertemporal trade models in his Ph D thesis And it was Adam who suggested the idea of a conference bringing together economists and economic historians At this point we want to acknowledge the very generous grant from the Egon Sohmen Foundation and the active participation of Dr Helmut Sohmen and Mrs Renee Sohmen at the conference We also want to thank Prof Sir Aaron Klug Nobel Laureate and the Klug family for their support and the financial contribution of the Adam Klug Memorial Lecture Fund at Ben Gurion University Other institutions that contributed to the conference were the Gianni Foundation Bank of Israel University of North Carolina Department of Economics Faculty of Social Science and Aharon Meir Center for Banking Bar Ilan University Department of Economics and Faculty of Social Science Ben Gurion University of the Negev
