The Path Of Love Paperback By Baba Meher:

I Heard God Laughing Daniel Ladinsky, 2006-09-26 Daniel Ladinsky's unforgettable lyrical poems are inspired by the cherished verse of Hafiz one of the greatest Sufi poets of all time To Persians the poems of Hafiz are not classical literature from a remote past but cherished wisdom from a dear and intimate friend that continues to be quoted in daily life With uncanny insight Hafiz captures the many forms and stages of love His poetry outlines the stages of the mystic's path of love a journey in which love dissolves personal boundaries and limitations to join larger processes of growth and transformation Once again Ladinsky reveals his talent for culling the essence of classic poetry for a modern audience Ladinsky's poems are not translations in a literal sense Rather than capture the form of a particular classical work Ladinsky's aim is to craft poems that release the spirit of Hafiz

The Sound of Bells Norah Moore, 2013 This book brings together the teachings of Meher Baba and the teachings of Carl Gustav Jung for the first time Many people would wish to bring together their inner experience of spirituality and psychological development Meher Baba did not come to bring a new religion but a philosophy that brought all religions together In this first book The Sound of Bells and Eastern Mysticism I looked at C G Jung's Analytical Psychology in the light of Meher Baba's book God Speaks In the second book of the trilogy Glowing Embers for the New Humanity God can only be Lived I brought a more detailed account of how this might be accomplished In the final book of the trilogy I turned to a more personal account of how I followed this path myself and summed up how the path has been followed throughout all the avataric ages
