Henry James and the Ghostly T. J. Lustig, 2011-02-03 The importance of ghosts and liminal experience in general in the fiction of Henry James Debriefing of an Unknown Form of Existence Yuri Dia Konov, Joseph Conrad Richard Curle, 1914 Writing Speculative Fiction Eugen Bacon, 2019-04-24 In this engaging and accessible guide Eugen Bacon explores writing speculative fiction as a creative practice drawing from her own work and the work of other writers and theorists to interrogate its various subgenres Through analysis of writers such as Stephen King J R R Tolkien and J K Rowling this book scrutinises the characteristics of speculative fiction considers the potential of writing cross genre and covers the challenges of targeting young adults It connects critical and cultural theories to the practice of creative writing examining how they might apply to the process of writing speculative fiction Both practical and critical in its evaluative gaze it also looks at publishing as a promising publishing medium for speculative fiction This is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of creative writing looking to develop a critical awareness of and practical skills for the writing of speculative fiction It is also a valuable resource for creators commentators and consumers of contemporary speculative fiction Chapter 8 Horror and the Paranormal was shortlisted for the Australasian Horror Writers Association AHWA's 2019 Australian Shadows Awards Modernist Short Fiction by Women Claire Drewery, 2016-04-15 Taking on the neglected issue of the short story's relationship to literary Modernism Claire Drewery examines works by Katherine Mansfield Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf Drewery argues that the short story as a genre is preoccupied with transgressing boundaries and thus offers an ideal platform from which to examine the Modernist fascination with the liminal Embodying both liberation and restriction liminal spaces on the one hand enable challenges to traditional cultural and personal identities while on the other hand they entail the inevitable negative consequences of occupying the position of the outsider marginality psychosis and death Mansfield Richardson Sinclair and Woolf all exploit this paradox in their short fiction which typically explores literal and psychological borderline states that are resistant to rational analysis Thus their short stories offered these authors an opportunity to represent the borders of unconsciousness and to articulate meaning while also conveying a sense of that which is unsayable Through their concern with liminality Drewery shows these writers contribute significantly to the Modernist aesthetic that interrogates identity the construction of the self and the relationship between the individual and society Architect ,1922
