The house of sin, tr. by A. Smyth Marcelle Tinayre, 1903      Sins From the Parsonage Window Marty Rickard, 2004-04
Folks in sleepy little Konesville still talk about the day Willard Wycoff walked to town Willard was confronted by the two local hoodlums who had harassed him for years only this time they pushed him over the edge Willard a geeky mild mannered Mr Rogers type guy exploded He ran home got his father's gun and before the day was over he had exacted the kind of humiliating revenge most nerds only dream of doing to those who taunt them And most of the town watched it happen Read about the day Mr Rogers came to town and solved his problems Terminator style It was not a beautiful day in the neighborhood Willard's short story is just one of many in this exciting collection by Marty Rickard One educator calls Sins From The Parsonage Window a textbook on short story writing Rickard's dialogue characterization description and mood are flawless and he is a master of suspense His stories suck the reader in like a cat hair in a Kirby one happy reader said If you like reading tightly constructed exciting short stories or writing them this book is a treasure for you Rickard is a gutsy writer who doesn't waste words This book is perfect for the student and teacher alike When you pick it up you won't want to let go until you have drained every drop Woven through Rickard's short fiction is a fact based series of vignettes as seen from the parsonage window where many sins were committed      The Gentleman's Magazine Library George Laurence
