1856-1956 Keith Neilson, 2016-03-16 In his groundbreaking book The British Way in Warfare Routledge 1990 David French outlined the skillful combination of maritime economic and diplomatic power employed by Britain to achieve its international goals Almost two decades later this collection offers a reassessment of French's thesis using it as a lens through which to explore Britain's relationship with various kinds of power military and civil and how this was employed across the globe In particular each essay addresses the ways in which the use of power manifested itself in the maintenance of Britain's place within the international system between 1856 and 1956 Adopting twin methodologies the collection firstly addresses the broad question of Britain's relationship with other Great Powers and how these influenced the strategies used before then testing these with specific case studies By taking this approach it is possible to discern which policies were successful and which failed and whether these remained constant across time and space Measuring Britain's strategy against her commercial imperial and military competitors including France the USA Italy Germany and Russia allows intriguing conclusions to be drawn about just how an essentially maritime power could compete with much larger and potentially more powerful continental rivals With contributions from an outstanding selection of military scholars this collection addresses fundamental questions about the intersection of military economic and diplomatic history that are as relevant today as they were during the height of Britain's imperial power It will prove essential reading not only for those with an interest in British military history but for anyone wishing to understand how power in all its multifaceted guises can be employed for national advantage on the international stage First Polish Armoured Division 1938-47 Evan McGilvray, Janusz Jarzembowski, 2022-07-20 If the Polish armed forces are of interest to you this title covering their distinguished service during World War II should appeal to many Armorama The First Polish Armored Division was formed in Scotland in February 1942 from Polish exiles who had escaped first Poland and then France Its commander Stanislaw Maczek and many of its men had previously served in Polish 10th Motorized Cavalry Brigade 10 BKS which had taken part in the Polish invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1938 and given a good account of itself in the defense of Poland against German and Soviet invasion of 1939 Under Maczek's leadership the division was trained and equipped along British lines in preparation for the invasion of France Attached to 1st Canadian Army the division was sent to Normandy in late July 1944 It suffered heavily during Operation Totalize but went on to play a crucial role in preventing an orderly German withdrawal from the Falaise Pocket by its stand at Hill 262 They then played their part in the advance across Western Europe and into Germany This detailed history supported by dozens of archive photos concludes by looking at the often poor treatment of Maczek and his men after the war A Polish armoured division comprising volunteers from Polish refugees it reads like a story from the Boys Own Paper Astonishing Books Monthly Fire and Steel Peter Caddick-Adams, 2022-06-06 An account of the blazing final hundred days of World War Two in Europe bringing to a close Peter Caddick Adams' monumental trilogy of the last year of Allied fighting against the German armies on the Western front 8th Battalion The Durham Light Infantry 1939-1945 Major P.J.

Lewis, Major I.R. English, 2011-12-23 Few regiments in the British army played such a prominent and widespread part in the Second World War as the Durham Light Infantry This is the full official account of the 8th battalion of the regiment s role in the conflict in which the DLI in general and the 8th battalion in particular more than upheld its long and proud traditions in the words of the foreword to this book by Lt Gen Sir Brian Horrocks who had the 8th DLI under his command both in North Africa and in Europe Every man that served in this great battalion can say to himself with pride I did more than my share to win the war The 8th DLI were part of the BEF sent to France in 1939 As such they withstood the onslaught of the German Blitzkrieg in May 1940 taking part in the British counter strike at Arras and the retreat to Dunkirk They were soon in action again this time at Gazala in North Africa where they were again attacked by German forces under Rommel The 8th DLI formed part of the victorious offensive at El Alamein and fought through to the dour slogging match to break the Mareth Line Subsequently they took part in the invasion of Sicily D Day and the battles of Gheel and Nijmegen in Holland This book as Horrocks says is a First class battalion history written by two former battalion officers It comes complete with appendices listing Rolls of honour and awards along with some 20 photographs and fourteen maps
