Per Linell

Situated Utterances:

Situated Utterances Harry Berger, 2005 In Situated Utterances Berger designs an analytical model of New Criticism shows how it was dismantled after the Second World War and demonstrates practice in studies of specific works The scope of the practice is broadened to the connection between cultural representations and institutional change Plato's dialogues are also covered

Approaching Dialogue Per Linell, 1998 Approaching Dialogue has its primary focus on the theoretical understanding and empirical analysis of talk in interaction It deals with conversation in general as well as talk within institutions against a backdrop of Conversation Analysis context based discourse analysis social pragmatics socio cultural theory and interdisciplinary dialogue analysis People's communicative projects and the structures and functions of talk in interaction are analyzed from the most local sequences to the comprehensive communicative activity types and genres A second aim of the book is to explore the possibilities and limitations of dialogism as a general epistemology for cognition and communication On this point it portrays the dialogical approach as a major alternative to the mainstream theories of cognition as individually based information processing communication as information transfer and language as a code Stressing aspects of interaction joint construction and cultural embeddedness and drawing upon extensive theoretical and empirical research carried out in different traditions this book aims at an integrating synthesis It is largely interdisciplinary in nature and has been written in such a way that it can be used at advanced undergraduate courses in linguistics

sociopragmatics of language communication studies sociology social psychology and cognitive science About the author Per Linell holds a Ph D in linguistics and has been professor within the interdisciplinary graduate program of Communication Studies at the University of Linköping Sweden since 1981 He has published widely in the fields of discourse studies and social pragmatics of language

Resource-Adaptive Cognitive Processes Matthew W. Crocker, Jörg Siekmann, 2010-03-10 This book explores the adaptation of cognitive processes to limited resources It deals with resource bounded and resource adaptive cognitive processes in human information processing and human machine systems plus the related technology transfer issues

Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology H. Russell Bernard, Clarence C. Gravlee, 2014-07-08 The Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology now in its second edition maintains a strong benchmark for understanding the scope of contemporary anthropological field methods Avoiding divisive debates over science and humanism the contributors draw upon both traditions to explore fieldwork in practice The second edition also reflects major developments of the past decade including the rising prominence of mixed methods the emergence of new technologies and evolving views on ethnographic writing Spanning the chain of research from designing a project through methods of data collection and interpretive analysis the Handbook features new chapters on ethnography of online communities social survey research and network and geospatial analysis Considered discussion of ethics epistemology and the presentation of research results to diverse audiences round out the volume The result is an essential guide for all scholars professionals and advanced students who employ fieldwork Rethinking Language, Mind, and World Dialogically Per Linell, 2009-05-01 Per Linell took his degree in linguistics and is currently professor of language and culture with a specialisation on communication and spoken interaction at the University of Linköping Sweden He has been instrumental in building up an internationally renowned interdisciplinary graduate school in communication studies in Linköping He has worked for many years on developing a dialogical alternative to mainstream theories in linguistics psychology and social sciences His production comprises more than 100 articles on dialogue talk in interaction and institutional discourse His more recent books include Approaching Dialogue 1998 The Written Language Bias in Linguistics 2005 and Dialogue in Focus Groups 2007 with I Markov M Grossen and A Salazar Orvig Pragmatic Development Anat Ninio, 2018-02-12 The pragmatic system consists of the rules for appropriate and communicatively effective language use This book provides an integrated view of the acquisition of the various pragmatic subsystems including expression of communicative intents participation in conversation and production of extended discourse The three components of the pragmatic system are presented in a way that makes clear how they relate to each other and why they all fall under the rubric of pragmatics The authors combine their own extensive work in these three domains with an overview of the field of pragmatic development describing how linguistic pragmatics relates to other aspects of language development to social development and to becoming a member of one's culture Meaning, Language, and Time Kevin J. Porter, 2006-03-11 Given the history of concepts like meaning time language and discourse any serious attempt to understand them must be interdisciplinary so MEANING LANGUAGE AND TIME draws on a wide range of important work in the history of philosophy rhetoric and composition In this groundbreaking work Porter joins these conversations with the aim of breaching the traditional disciplinary walls and opening new areas of inquiry Selected Studies and Applications Joshua A. Fishman, 2018-11-05 No detailed description available for Selected Studies and Applications Alternative Approaches to Second Language Acquisition Dwight Atkinson, 2011-03 This volume presents seven alternative approaches to studying second language acquisition and each approach is authored by a leading advocate for it in the field Edited by Dwight Atkinson and including contributions from James Lantolf Diane Larsen Freeman Gabriele Kasper and Johannes Wagner Bonny Norton and Carolyn McKinney Patricia Duff and Steven Talmy Philosophy of Medicine and Bioethics Ronald A. Carson, C.R. Burns, 2006-04-11 Papers presented at a symposium on philosophy and medicine at the Institute for the Medical Humanities at the University of Texas Medical Branch in 1974 were published in the inaugural volume of this series To help celebrate more than 20 years of extraordinary success with the series another symposium was convened in Galveston in 1995 The convenors asked the participants these questions In what ways and to what ends have academic humanists and medical scientists and practitioners become serious conversation partners in recent years How have their dialogues been shaped by prevailing social views political philosophies academic habits professional mores and public pressures What have been the key concepts and questions of these dialogues Have the dialogues made any appreciable intellectual or social difference Have they improved the care of the sick Authors respond from a variety of theoretical perspectives in the humanities They also articulate conceptions of philosophy of medicine and bioethics from various practice experiences and bring critical attention to aspects of the contemporary health policy
