Céline, Sister Geneviève of the Holy Face Stéphane Joseph Piat, 1997 This biography of Celine Martin will be most welcomed by the innumerable devotees of St Therese because Celine was her closest sister and friend had a great influence on Therese and also became a very holy woman herself Celine entered the same Carmelite monastery as Therese and became Sister Genevieve of the Holy Face She was the close confidante of Therese who confided in Celine all of her spiritual lights and graces and the great work the Holy Spirit was doing in her soul Celine's spiritual path was strewn with difficulties she had numerous struggles temptations and moments of darkness She knew the bitterness of discouragement because her faults stubbornly refused to be uprooted But she persevered on the little way in the footsteps of her great sister and became very saintly She is an inspiring and consoling example for all who struggle for virtue without much apparent success The Letters of St. Thérèse of Lisieux and Those Who Knew Her: General Correspondence, vol. 2 John Clarke, OCD, 1988 Letters to and from St Therese of Lisieux from September 1890 Novitiate period as a Carmelite Nun to September 1897 death Translated from the critical edition by John Clarke OCD Includes 4 pages of facsimiles of Therese's letters plus general and biblical index to both volumes More Information This sequel to volume 1 contains all of Therese's letters from the end of September 1890 during her novitiate until her death in 1897 as well as many letters written to or about her Here the mature Saint Therese shows the path of her growth as a religious and as a deep spiritual writer The reader learns much about all of her correspondents including her two missionary brothers and gains familiarity with the development of her thought and message Fifty pages of complementary documents give us useful tools for studying the texts Hit and Nun Peg Cochran, 2015-01-06 The hilarious Lucille Mazarella is back and this time she's investigating a murder linked to her favorite pizzeria When the fifty something housewife goes undercover at a restaurant to solve the case she quickly learns that if the killer doesn't get her the calories will When the owner of Lucille's favorite pizzeria drops dead at her feet she's left wondering who could have harmed such a kind man and wondering where she'll get her favorite food now Deciding to go undercover as a pizza maker to sniff out the clues and maybe an extra slice or two Lucille's determined to track down the culprit before they can strike again As the hunt for the killer heats up Lucille and her friend Flo dig deeper into the crime and discover a jealous wife a competitive pizza man who would kill for more business and a decades old mystery that may hold the key to the murder Trouble is the one person who could break the case wide open is a nun who took a vow of silence and she's not talking If you want a very funny murder mystery then this book is for you I've never laughed so hard while reading before Goodreads on Unholy Matrimony Book 2 in the Lucille Mystery Series Spreading Wings Alastair Sharp, 2013-05-13 In Lourdes on the holy feast day of Assumption the body of a dead child lies in a pool of blood in front of the statue of the Virgin Around her stand those who have come to love her not just as a child but as a gifted soul trapped in a disabled body Their grief at her loss merges with the love that she has awoken in them Though she is gone the love that they feel in her presence grows stronger Her body returns to the convent of the nuns who came to regard her as their own saint but at the moment when they are ready to bury her she lets them know that she is very much still with them What follows is the evolution of a relationship that began when seekers from different paths converged on a chateau in Entre Deux Mers South Western France and discovered this child held the key to their destiny What began in Crooked Wings now takes flight and like birds losing their fledgling plumage they learn to spread their wings

Living in God's Providence: History of the Congregation of Divine Providence of San Antonio, Texas, 1943-2000 Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP,2009-06-29 In 1943 the bell attached to a rope on both floors of a plain box like convent in Houston Texas rang at 5 a m The nine Sisters of Divine Providence stationed at the grade school arose reciting aloud the traditional prayer that began Live Jesus in my heart My God I give you my heart Mercifully deign to receive it and grant that no creature shall possess it but Thou alone Continuing to pray aloud for five more minutes the Sisters who shared small bedrooms began to dress All had developed in their novitiate a rhythm for this process which launched each day in a uniform way Over 20 items of dress had to be donned in a certain order Before Morning Prayer at 5 25 in the small chapel on the first floor the Sisters also stripped their single beds flipped the thin mattresses and replaced the bed linens trying not to invade a companion s limited space Usually it was still dark outside when they started to recite morning prayers unique to the Congregation This was followed by chanting in Latin on one tone Matins Lauds Prime Tierce Sext and None from the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Then the superior read aloud some points for reflection and the Sisters meditated in silence for half an hour This was the first time of the day they had some relatively unstructured time and they sometimes experienced distractions Perhaps they planned how to teach something better or recalled problematic students At 6 30 one of the parish priests offered Mass which was followed by breakfast The Sisters ate in silence while one of them read passages from the Imitation of Christ By 8 a m they were leading their pupils across the playground to the children s daily Mass in the parish church In sharp contrast in 1990 Sister Mary Walter Gutowski CDP one of two Sisters living in a small apartment was the administrator of Our Lady of Guadalupe clinic for low income Latinos and African Americans in Rosenberg Texas Sister Walter who was credited with having delivered more than 3 000 babies under difficult rural circumstances once remarked When someone knocks at my door in the middle of the night I get dressed in two minutes flat because I never know what will be waiting for me outside 1 What explains this dramatic change of style and ritual in the routines of Catholic Sisters living in mission houses How did the Sisters move from cloisters to apartments How did the rigid routines of the nine Sisters of 1943 transmute into the singular and unstructured life of Sister Mary Walter What are the connections between the bell that rang at five in the morning and the one that sounded at any hour This history examines the period of 1943 to 2000 an era during which the Sisters of Divine Providence redefined their perspective and practices within the context of a changing American Catholic church It demonstrates that the Sisters were well situated to embrace the shifting demands of religious mission because their very heritage was grounded in ongoing transformations Those transformations were played out on a highly charged stage of oppression concerning multi racial relationships one that further prepared the Sisters for the intense dynamics of modern church life When the Sisters celebrated in 1966 the centennial of their arrival in Texas they were staffing their own college high schools and numerous grammar schools in several states as well as hospitals clinics and neighborhood centers They had incorporated a group of women from Mexico and encouraged the independence of a new Providence congregation in the U S Responding to Vatican encouragement after the second Vatican Council they began experiments to update structures and customs so as minister more effectively The most visible were in the areas of community living and governance and were accompanied by greater collegiality subsidiarity variety in prayer The Hampton Magazine ,1904
