Slaves, Spices and Ivory in Zanzibar Abdul Sheriff, 1987-09-30 The rise of Zanzibar was based on two major economic transformations Firstly slaves became used for producing cloves and grains for export Previously the slaves themselves were exported Secondly there was an increased international demand for luxuries such as ivory At the same time the price of imported manufactured goods was falling Zanzibar took advantage of its strategic position to trade as far as the Great Lakes However this very economic success increasingly subordinated Zanzibar to Britain with its anti slavery crusade and its control over the Indian merchant class Professor Sheriff analyses the early stages of the underdevelopment of East Africa and provides a corrective to the dominance of political and diplomatic factors in the history of the area Slaves, Spices, & Ivory in Zanzibar Abdul Sheriff, 1987 The rise of Zanzibar was based on two major economic transformations firstly slaves became used for the production of cloves and grain for export instead of the slaves themselves being exported secondly there was an increased demand for luxuries such as ivory and Zanzibar took advantage of its strategic position to trade as far as the Great Lakes Yet this economic success increasingly subordinated Zanzibar to Britain with its anti slavery crusade and its control over the Indian merchant class North America Ohio U Press Kenya EAEP Oman, Culture and Diplomacy Jeremy Jones, 2013-03-10 This book is a cultural history offering an historical account of the formation of a distinctive Omani culture arguing that it is in this unique culture that a specific conception and practice of diplomacy has been developed

Decolonization & Independence in Kenya, 1940-93 Bethwell A. Ogot, William Robert Ochieng', 1995 This is a sharply observed assessment of the history of the last half century by a distinguished group of historians of Kenya At the same time the book is a courageous reflection in the dilemmas of African nationhood Professor B A Ogot says The main purpose of the book is to show that decolonization does not only mean the transfer of alien power to sovereign nationhood it must also entail the liberation of the worlds of spirit and culture as well as economics and politics The book also raises a more fundamental question that is How much independence is available to any state national economy or culture in today's world It asks how far are Africa's miseries linked to the colonial past and to the process of decolonization In particular the book raises the basic question of how far Kenya is avoidably neo colonial And what does neo colonial dependence mean The book answers these questions by discussing the dynamic between the politics of decolonization the social history of class formation and the economics of dependence The book ends with a provocative epilogue discussing the transformation of the post colonial state from a single party to a multi party system Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa Henri Médard, Shane Doyle, 2007-11-16 Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa is a collection of ten studies by the most prominent historians of the region Slavery was more important in the Great Lakes region of Eastern Africa than often has been assumed and Africans from the interior played a more complex role than was previously recognized The essays in this collection reveal the connections between the peoples of the region as well as their encounters with the conquering Europeans The contributors challenge the assertion that domestic slavery increased in Africa as a result of the international trade Slavery in this region was not a uniform phenomenon and the line between enslaved and non slave labor was fine Kinship ties could mark the difference between free and unfree labor Social categories were not always clear cut and the status of a slave could change within a lifetime Contents Introduction by Henri M dard Language Evidence of Slavery to the Eighteenth Century by David Schoenbrun The Rise of Slavery Social Change in Unyamwezi 1860 1900 by Jan Georg Deutsch Slavery Forced Labour in the Eastern Congo 1850 1910 by David Northrup Legacies of Slavery in North West Uganda The One Elevens by Mark Leopold Human Booty in Buganda The Seizure of People in War c 1700 c 1900 by Richard Reid Stolen People Autonomous Chiefs in Nineteenth Century Buganda by Holly Hanson Women s Experiences of Slavery in Late Nineteenth Early Twentieth Century Uganda by Michael W Tuck Slavery Social Oppression in Ankole 1890 1940 by Edward I Steinhart The Slave Trade in Burundi Rwanda at the Beginning of German Colonisation 1890 1906 by Jean Pierre Chretien Bunyoro the Demography of Slavery Debate by Shane Doyle

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical

African Womanhood in Colonial Kenya, 1900-50 Tabitha M. Islam in German East Africa, 1885-1918 Jörg Haustein, 2023-07-14 In this rich and multi layered deconstruction of German colonial engagement with Islam J rg Haustein shows how imperial agents in Germany s largest colony wielded the knowledge category of Islam in a broad set of debates ranging from race language and education to slavery law conflict and war These representations of Mohammedanism often invoked for particular political ends amounted to a serious misreading of Muslims in East Africa with significant long term effects As the first in depth account of the politics of Islam in German East Africa the book makes an essential contribution to the history of religion in Tanzania before British rule It also offers a template for re reading the colonial archive in a manner that recovers Muslim agency beyond a European paradigm of religion     Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental relations over time contributors take a thematic approach to examine the ways in which we can conceptualise these two very different yet inextricably linked areas of the world Using comparative examples throughout the chronological sections cover Early colonialist contacts between Africa and Asia Modern Asia Africa interactions through diplomacy political networks and societal connections Africa Asia contemporary relations including increasing economic security and environmental cooperation This handbook grapples with major intellectual questions defines current research and projects future agendas of investigation in the field As such it will be of great interest to students of African and Asian Politics as well as researchers and policymakers interested in Asian and African Studies     Against Decolonisation Doug Stokes, 2023-08-29 Following the killing of George Floyd in 2020 a moral panic gripped the US and UK To atone for an alleged history of racism statues were torn down and symbols of national identity attacked Across universities fringe theories became the new orthodoxy with a cadre of activists backed by university technocrats adopting a binary worldview of moral certainty sin and deconstructive redemption through Western self erasure This hard hitting book surveys these developments for the first time It unpacks and challenges the theories and arguments deployed by decolonisers in a university system now characterised by garbled leadership and illiberal groupthink The desire to question the West s sense of itself deconstruct its narratives and overthrow its institutional order is an impulse that ironically was underpinned by a more confident and assured Western hegemony which is now waning and under great strain If its light continues to dim who or what will carry the torch for human freedom and progress     Foundations of an African Civilisation D. W. Phillipson, 2014 A single coherent narrative of Aksumite civilisation revealing the roots of medieval Christian Ethiopia This well illustrated book provides an up to date survey of a key period in the history of northern Ethiopia and south central Eritrea It is accessible to the general reader but its comprehensive references and guidance to controversies and research needs will render it invaluable to specialists and students It considers how the region s literate communities arose and flourished during the last millennium BC giving rise to the Aksumite civilisation whose achievements and intercontinental significance are increasingly recognised and which formed an integral but often neglected component of the Christian world in Late Antiquity Aksum is now seen as the ancestor of the region s medieval Christian kingdom whose churches and associated art continue to attract many visitors to Ethiopia David W Phillipson is Emeritus Professor of African Archaeology and former Director of the University Museum of

Alpers, Chhaya Goswami, 2019-02-12 Blessed with numerous safe harbours accessible ports and a rich hinterland Gujarat has been central to the history of Indian Ocean maritime exchange that involved not only goods but also people and ideas This volume maps the trajectory of the extra continental interactions of Gujarat and how it shaped the history of the Indian Ocean Chronologically the volume spans two millennia and geographically it ranges from the Red Sea to Southeast Asia The book focuses on specific groups of Gujarati traders and their accessibility and trading activities with maritime merchants from Africa Arabia Southeast Asia China and Europe It not only analyses the complex process of commodity circulation involving a host of players huge investments and numerous commercial operations but also engages with questions of migration and diaspora Paying close attention to current historiographical debates the contributors make serious efforts to challenge the neat regional boundaries that are often drawn around the trading history of Gujarat

Entrepreneurship in Africa Moses E. Ochonu, 2018-02-05 A tapestry of innovation ideas and commerce Africa and its entrepreneurial hubs are deeply connected to those of the past Moses E Ochonu and an international group of contributors explores the lived experiences of African innovators who have created value for themselves and their communities Profiles of vendors farmers craftspeople healers spiritual consultants warriors musicians technological innovators political mobilizers and laborers featured in this volume show African models of entrepreneurship in action As a whole the essays consider the history of entrepreneurship in Africa illustrating its multiple origins and showing how it differs from the Western capitalist experience As they establish historical patterns of business creativity these explorations open new avenues for understanding indigenous enterprise and homegrown commerce and their relationship to social economic and political debates in Africa today

Twilight of an Industry in East Africa Katharine Frederick, 2020-08-20 Cotton textile industries vanished from much of East Africa during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This book investigates the underlying causes of industrial arrest in the region through a series of in depth case studies Findings are considered in light of existing studies on comparatively more resilient textile centers elsewhere on the continent to derive insights into the determinants of differing industrial trajectories across sub Saharan Africa The author argues that scholars have placed undue weight on global forces as the primary drivers of industrial decline in the Global South Rather this book reveals how local factors principally demographic geographic and institutional features interacted with external forces to influence unique regional outcomes during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as sub Saharan African was increasingly integrated into global trade networks and European colonial empires

East African Expressions of Christianity Thomas T. Spear, Isaria N. Kimambo, 1999 Tanzanian and US historians anthropologists political scientists and church people challenge the assumption that Christianity in the region represents colonial and capitalist powers that helped subdue Africans They show instead how Africans have spread the religion among themselves have seized control of their own spiritual destinies and used their religious beliefs to improve their individual and collective lives Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Mercantile Bombay Sifra Lentin,2021-11-17 This volume reclaims Mumbai's legacy as a global financial centre of the 19th to the first half of the 20th century It shows how Mumbai or erstwhile Bombay once served as a central node in global networks of trade finance commercial institutions and most importantly trading communities In doing so it highlights that this city more than any other Indian city still possesses all these virtuous elements making it an appropriate location for a financial special economic zone SEZ an idea shelved temporarily The book explores how the city flourished in its heyday as a trading financial commercial and manufacturing hub in a globalised colonial world While the city's importance as a nodal financial hub in the global economy ebbed post India's Independence and the Second World War the multi cultural city found renewed importance following the forex crisis of 1991 Institutions the RBI SEBI and State Bank of India headquarters capacities experiences communities and talent centred in Mumbai revived its position while managing the transition to a more open economy Though Mumbai is not yet an international financial centre financial SEZ like London New York Dubai Singapore Hong Kong this volume explores why it has all the essential elements to become one today and looks at the city as a trading city a global financial centre and a city of enterprise An introspective read on India's financial capital this volume will be essential for scholars and researchers of economics business studies and commerce It will be of great interest to policy makers city headquartered business houses financial institutions and its people      Domesticating the World Jeremy Prestholdt,2008-01-15 Ingeniously stands the study of globalization and trade on its head Edward Alpers Chair of Department of History UCLA
