Steel City Blues:

Steel City Blues Julianne Schultz, 1990-01-01 In the depression of the early 1980s the steel and coal mining city of Wollongong lost thousands of jobs This is the personal side to that story corporate chaos coal miners being sacked women fighting for nontraditional jobs and then being dropped at the first economic downturn Music and Heritage Liam Maloney, John Schofield, 2021-04-13 Music and Heritage provides new thinking about the diverse ways people engage with heritage By exploring the relationships that exist between music place and identity the book illustrates how people form attachments to place and how such attachments are represented by sound and music making Presenting case studies and perspectives from across a range of genres the volume argues that combining music with heritage provides an alternative and productive opportunity to think about heritage values and place attachment Contributions to this edited collection use a diversity of methods perspectives cues and genres to reflect critically on issues related to these and other interconnections in ways that encourage new thinking about the character meaning and purpose of cultural heritage and the various ways in which people can interact with it through sound thus re encountering the supposedly familiar world around them Taking heritage studies musicology and place making research in new directions Music and Heritage will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage history music geography and anthropology It will also be relevant to those with an interest in how music relates to place making and place attachment as well as to practitioners and policymakers working in the planning design and creative sectors The Far Left in Australia since 1945 Jon Piccini, Evan Smith, Matthew Worley, 2018-07-11 The far left in Australia had significant effects on post war politics culture and society The Communist Party of Australia CPA ended World War II with some 20 000 members and despite the harsh and vitriolic Cold War climate of the 1950s seeded or provided impetus for the re emergence of other movements Radicals subscribing to ideologies beyond the Soviet orbit Maoists Trotskyists anarchists and others also created parties and organisations and led movements All of these different far left parties and movements changed and shifted during time responding to one political crisis or another but they remained steadfastly devoted to a better world This collection bringing together 14 chapters from leading and emerging figures in the Australian and international historical profession for the first time charts some of these significant moments and interventions revealing the Australian far left s often forgotten contribution to the nation s history The Eighties Frank Bongiorno, 2017-01-12 Winner of the ACT Book of the Year Award Shortlisted for the Ernest Scott Prize and CHASS Australia Prize It was the era of Hawke and Keating Kylie and INXS the America s Cup and the Bicentenary It was perhaps the most controversial decade in Australian history with high flying entrepreneurs booming and busting torrid debates over land rights and immigration the advent of AIDS a harsh recession and the rise of the New Right It was a time when Australians fought for social change on union picket lines at rallies for women s rights and against nuclear weapons and as part of a new environmental movement And then there were the events that left many scratching their heads Joh for

Canberra the Australia Card Cliff Young In The Eighties Frank Bongiorno brings all this and more to life He sheds new light on both the ordinary and extraordinary things that happened to Australia and Australians during this liveliest of decades The definitive account of an inspired infuriating decade George Megalogenis A very impressive achievement The Monthly Meaty and entertaining The Australian

Immigrant Industry Anoma Pieris, Mirjana Lozanovska, Dr Alexandra Dellios, Andrew Saniga, 2024-08-02 After the end of the Second World War migrants were critical to the spatial making of modern Australia Major federally funded industries driving postwar nation building programs depended on the employment of large numbers of people who had been displaced by the war Directed to remote rural and urban industrial sites migrant labor and resettlement altered the nation's physical landscape providing Australia with its contemporary economic base While the immigrant contribution to nation building in cultural terms is well known its everyday spatial architectural and landscape transformations remain unexamined This book aims to bring to the foreground postwar industry and immigration to comprehensively document a uniquely Australian shaping of the built environment

Popular Music Heritage, Cultural Justice and the Deindustrialising City Sarah Baker, Zelmarie Cantillon, Raphaël Nowak, 2023-03-02 The celebration of popular music can be an important mode of cultural expression and a source of pride for urban communities This Element analyses the capacity for popular music heritage to enact cultural justice in the deindustrialising cities of Wollongong Australia Detroit USA and Birmingham UK The Element develops a critical approach to cultural justice for examining music and the city in a heritage context and outlines how the quest for cultural justice manifests in three key ways collection preservation and archiving curation storytelling and heritage interpretation and mobilising communities for collective action necessary to shoot a film stage a play produce a concert record an album construct a sculpture hold a fundraiser or almost anything else James A Richards is an author and marketing professional that has been working in Pittsburgh s amazingly vibrant arts and entertainment community for nearly three decades To learn more visit www.pittsburghaebook.com Steel City Blues Vincent Massaro,2020-05-06 Pittsburgh the Steel City Steel for the industry that thrived for more than a century Steel for the men and women who toiled there It began for Detective Sam Lucas in August of 1960 His life with his wife and three children was idyllic Sam had just arrested Boris Flick for murder His partner Jimmy Dugan would get the confession no matter what it took Life was good Then Katherine Burns dead body was discovered splayed across her bed Sam Lucas fears would soon be realized as he raced against the clock to bring a killer to justice His life changed forever In the fall of 1974 in the shadows of a country that had just seen its president resign and a steel industry that is slowly imploding a melancholy has taken over the country his friend has committed suicide and an unspeakable evil arises As Sam Lucas races to discover what happened to his friend and police chief he begins to delve deeper into the despair of a forgotten community and try to bring justice to people without hope As Sam Lucas tracks down a killer he must confront the mistakes of his past as he tries to make right many wrongs and to piece together the broken fragments of his life Small Cities David Bell,Mark Jayne,2006-09-27 Until now much research in the field of urban planning and change has focused on the economic political social cultural and spatial transformations of global cities and larger metropolitan areas In this topical new volume David Bell and Mark Jayne redress this balance focusing on urban change within small cities around the world Drawing together research from a strong international team of contributors this four part book is the first systematic overview of small cities A comprehensive and integrated primer with coverage of all key topics it takes a multi disciplinary approach to an important contemporary urban phenomenon The book addresses political and economic decision making urban economic development and competitive advantage cultural infrastructure and planning in the regeneration of small cities identities lifestyles and ways in which different groups interact in small cities Centering on urban change as opposed to pure ethnographic description the book s focus on informed empirical research raises many important issues Its blend of conceptual chapters and theoretically directed case studies provides an excellent resource for a broad spectrum of undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as providing a rich resource for academics and researchers Panic Attack Dennis Palumbo,2021-09-21 A shooter takes deadly aim and throws a city into panic Psychologist Daniel Rinaldi is no stranger to trauma A survivor of not one but two attempts on his life by a deranged killer the therapist also counsels trauma patients in his private practice and contracts with the Pittsburgh Police to help victims of violent crime cope with their experience When a sports mascot is gunned down mid field by a sniper at a college football game he attends Rinaldi becomes an accidental yet integral part of the investigation To begin with the victim in the costume is not the person who was supposed to be wearing it When the actual Teasdale Tiger hears the news he suffers a crippling panic attack and calls on Rinaldi to talk him through it

From there Rinaldi seems to be in all the wrong places at all the wrong times as the sniper continues his killing spree Meeting with resistance from members of the Pittsburgh Police force and taking dangerous risks in pursuit of the killer Rinaldi puts his career and his life in harm s way as he races to find a connection between the victims before the shooter strikes again Getting by in Hard Times David Livingstone,Meg Luxton,June Shirley Corman,2001-01-01 Describes the experiences of daily life for predominantly white working class women and men during the period of economic restructuring begun in the 1980s The Death of Holden Royce Kurlmelovs,2016-08-30 Holden is one of the few brands that has an emotional grip on Australia Qantas being another The closure of the Holden factory in Adelaide is not just the end of a business it s the end of an era of a story and of a great Australian dream When Holden signalled that it would close its Adelaide factory it struck at the very heart of Australian identity Holden is our car made on our shores It s the choice of patriotic rev heads and suburban drivers alike How could a car that was so beloved and so popular be so unprofitable to make The story of the collapse of Holden is about the people who make and drive the cars it s about sustaining industry in Australia it s about communities of workers and what happens when the work dries up And if it s not quite about the death of an icon because Holdens will remain on Australian roads for a long time to come then it s about what happens when an icon falls to knees in front of a whole nation Brilliant and powerful Nick Xenophon Angels of Destruction Keith Donohue,2009-03-03 Keith Donohue s first novel The Stolen Child was a national bestseller hailed as captivating USA Today luminous and thrilling Washington Post and wonderful So spare and unsentimental that it s impossible not to be moved Newsweek His new novel Angels of Destruction opens on a winter s night when a young girl appears at the home of Mrs Margaret Quinn a widow who lives alone A decade earlier she had lost her only child Erica who fled with her high school sweetheart to join a radical student group known as the Angels of Destruction Before Margaret answers the knock in the dark hours she whispers a prayer and then makes her visitor welcome at the door The girl who claims to be nine years old and an orphan with no place to go beguiles Margaret offering some solace some compensation for the woman s loss Together they hatch a plan to pass her off as her newly found granddaughter Norah Quinn and enlist Sean Fallon a classmate and heartbroken boy to guide her into the school and town Their conspiracy is vulnerable not only to those children and neighbors intrigued by Norah s mysterious and magical qualities but by a lone figure shadowing the girl who threatens to reveal the child s true identity and her purpose in Margaret s life Who are these strangers really And what is their connection to the past the Angels and the long missing daughter Angels of Destruction is an unforgettable story of hope and fear heartache and redemption The saga of the Quinn family unfolds against an America wracked by change As it delicately dances on the line between the real and the imagined this mesmerizing new novel confirms Keith Donohue s standing as one of our most inspiring and inventive novelists Framing Technology Lelia Green,Roger Guinery,2023-05-09 Framing Technology uses an interdisciplinary approach to explore some of the key issues in technology today including virtual reality

gender health the environment regulation the information society surveillance and globalisation Schooling Reform In Hard Times Bob Lingard, John Knight, Paige Porter, 2003-09-02 Based on research carried out under Labour governments throughout the 1990s in Western Australia the authors consider the social political and economic conditions under which policy is formulated understood and enacted They look at how the state structure affects the content and nature of policy statements and provide an outline of the history of policy developments and point to future possibilities and probabilities Outcomes within funding ceilings accountability frameworks and national guidelines are but some of the changes referred to The emergence of competency based standards in education and training in schools workplaces and the professions is evident throughout Australia at state level but the concern is whether issues of education should be played out within the state and outside civil society The authors argue for the mediation in implementation of policy rather than a lambasting of policy formulation and implementation This text is intended for heads of education departments PGCE BEd MEd students and researchers interested in education policy and planning Education policymakers and educational historians Secret Chicago Sam Weller, 2002-03 The Unique Guidebook to Chicago s Hidden Sites Sounds Tastes Canada Exposed Pierre Anctil, André Loiselle, Christopher Rolfe, 2009 Selected papers from the sixth biennial conference of the International Council for Canadian Studies held in Ottawa in May 2008 Introd Australian Political Economy of Violence and Non-Violence Erik Paul, 2016-05-13 This book is the first to establish the nature and causes of violence as key features in the political economy of Australia as an advanced capitalist society Australia s neoliberal corporate security state in seen to represent the emergence of a post democratic order whereby minds and bodies are disciplined to the dominant ideology of market relations Locating questions of the democracy and of the country s economy at the heart of Australia s political struggle the author elaborates how violence in Australia is built into a hegemonic order characterized by the concentration of private power and wealth Identifying the commodification of people and nature the construction and manipulation of antagonisms and enemies and the politics of fear as features of a new authoritarianism and one party political state Erik Paul explores alternatives to the existing neoliberal hegemonic order Positing that democratization requires a clearly defined counter culture based on the political economy of social economic and political equality the book draws out the potential in non violent progressive social movements for a new political economy
