Steel From Ashes Rebuilt To Manufacturing Excellence:

Steel Peggy Lim,1991      Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia Greg Felker,K. S. Jomo,Rajah Rasiah,2013-02-01 This book and its companion Technology Competitiveness and the State examine and evaluate Malaysian industrialization in terms of its experience of and prospects for industrial technology development The focus is on the development of Malaysia's technological industrial base from a sector and firm specific perspective including the role of foreign multinationals in this process Industrial Technology Development in Malaysia provides a valuable analysis of the technological development of a Newly Industrializing Country and reflects on whether existing development strategies can be maintained in the wake of the financial crises sweeping the East Asian economies      Evidence-Based Developmental Economics (UM Press) Carlo Pietrobelli,Rajah Rasiah,2012 At a time when governments are looking for new approaches to promote economic development as the free markets paradigm has proved to be neither necessary nor adequate the pioneering work of Sanjaya Lall offers policy relevant insights Sharing his epistemological coordinates the contributors to this volume develop his ideas further by treating the theory methodology and evidence related to development issues inductively through a dynamic set of lenses      Handbook of Innovation Systems and Developing Countries Bengt-Åke Lundvall,K.J. Joseph,Cristina Chaminade,Jan Vang,2011-01-01 The innovation systems IS approach emerged as a theoretical framework in the industrialized world in the mid 1990s to explain innovation and growth in the developed world This Handbook is the first attempt to adapt the IS approach to developing countries from a theoretical and empirical viewpoint The Handbook brings eminent scholars in economics innovation and development studies together with promising young researchers to review the literature and push theoretical boundaries They critically review the IS approach and its adequacy for developing countries discuss the relationship between IS and development and address the question of how it should be adapted to the realities of developing nations Spanning national sectoral and regional innovation systems across Asia Latin America and Africa and written by the world's leading scholars within the field this comprehensive Handbook will strongly appeal to academics researchers and students with an interest in innovation and technology in developing countries

Economic Growth and Development in the Tropics Sook Rei Tan,Haejin Jang,Jacob Wood,2024-02-06 The living standards and scale of development around the world are vastly unequal One notable observation is that much of the poverty stricken area is located between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn By contrast affluent nations are situated in more temperate zones Such a phenomenon gives weight to the geography hypothesis that seeks to explain the occurrence of global economic inequality by placing an emphasis on the importance of natural elements such as location and climate in determining the economic conditions of a nation This book concentrates exclusively and in depth on the key economic phenomena and factors which shape tropical economies today It examines contemporary economic problems confronting the tropical countries and provides policy recommendations that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals set in the 2030 Agenda It contains research works and case studies of tropical economies that are related to the area of development and environment economics The book s themes range from economic growth poverty reduction income inequality economic globalization international trade capital flow financial development and institutional development to environmental sustainability within the Tropics Recognizing the dynamism and diversity of the tropics the book encompasses empirical and policy analyses that address the key economic issues and challenges in the region so as to provide an important platform from which new policymaking initiatives can flourish This book will draw readership primarily from the fields of economics and public policy particularly under the subject areas of development and environment economics as well as discussions in the sustainability policy space

Regional Growth and Sustainable Development in Asia Amitrajeet A. Batabyal, Peter Nijkamp, 2016-12-20 This book addresses two general questions that have arisen as a result of the uneven rise of the various Asian economies in contemporary times First to lift people out of poverty and to improve the quality of their lives how do we institute policies that will ensure economic growth in the different regions of Asia Second what can we do to ensure that the economic growth we seek is sustainable so that the regional economic development that emerges is broad based inclusive and environmentally conscious Specifically this edited book will provide a unified perspective on regional growth and sustainable development in Asia by focusing on the above two broad questions The book will emphasize dynamic modeling and it will illustrate the role that sound theoretical and empirical modeling of an intertemporal nature can play in shedding light on salient public policy questions concerning regional growth and sustainable development The specific topics to be addressed in this book include growth accounting natural resource use and management the regulation of environmental externalities geographic information systems and regional climate change The individual chapters in this book will be written by international experts who are also active researchers in their respective fields Therefore this book is highly recommended to all readers who seek an in depth and up to date perspective on some of the most salient issues at the interface of regional growth and sustainable development in Asia
