Francis Howard Heller

Steel Helmet:

Stahlhelm Floyd R. Tubbs, Robert W. Clawson, 2000 Perhaps the most easily recognizable military helmet of the 20th century is the German Stahlhelm In this revised and expanded edition of the text Floyd R Tubbs and Robert W Clawson identify and classify the Stahlhelm and relate its history designs features and uses Including detailed drawings and illustrative photographs the book should appeal to both the collector as well as the military historian Steel Helmet and Mortarboard Francis Howard Heller, 2009 As a young officer candidate in the Austrian army in 1938 Francis Heller put himself at risk by refusing to swear an oath of allegiance to Adolf Hitler Had he stayed in Vienna he would have been arrested by the Gestapo as a supporter of Austrian independence and an enemy of the Nazis But he managed to escape into Czechoslovakia under cover of darkness He subsequently made his way to America where he finally pursued the academic career that military service had interrupted Steel Helmet and Mortarboard is the story of this Austrian refugee who earned an American law degree in 1941 and set his sights on studying political science but a year later was drafted into the U S Army In his second military career Heller opted for service as an enlisted man in a combat unit After basic training he was assigned as a private in a regular army division Then in a field artillery unit he so distinguished himself in combat in the Pacific theater that he received a battlefield commission and went on to serve in the early months of the occupation of Japan and on one assignment escorting German nationals home from the Far East found himself back in Europe and witnessing evidence of the horrors at Dachau that he himself had barely managed to escape Heller s account of those years recalls how an upper middle class migr adjusted to military life while serving in such combat zones as New Guinea and the Philippines then how he later resumed his academic career earned his Ph D and went on to teach at the University of Kansas But Heller s return to academic life was anything but final recalled to active duty for the Korean War he also served in later years with the U S Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth After a lifetime of changing hats mortarboard for helmet and back again Heller now in his nineties has recorded his unique perceptions as an educated observer of the world Steel Helmet and Mortarboard is an absorbing narrative of one individual s experiences across a spectrum of personal and professional challenges written with wry humor and insight that reflect a keen ability to master whatever circumstances life brings The History of the German Steel Helmet, 1916-1945 Ludwig Baer, 1985 Ny og mere fyldig tysk udgave 1993 se bognr 3980386406 og bognr 3980386414 , Technical Manual United States Department of the Army, 1970

Maintenance Manual, 1970 The American Hatter, 1918 Contested Objects Nicholas J. Saunders, Paul

Cornish, 2014-09-04 Contested Objects breaks new ground in the interdisciplinary study of material culture Its focus is on the rich and varied legacy of objects from the First World War as the global conflict that defined the twentieth century From the iconic German steel helmet to practice trenches on Salisbury Plain and from the Dazzle Ship phenomenon through medal wearing diary writing trophy collecting the market in war souvenirs and the evocative reworking of European objects by African soldiers this book presents a dazzling array of hitherto unseen worlds of the Great War The innovative and multidisciplinary approach adopted here follows the lead established by Nicholas J Saunders Matters of Conflict Routledge 2004 and extends its geographical coverage to embrace a truly international perspective Australia Africa Italy Germany France Belgium and Britain are all represented by a cross disciplinary group of scholars working in archaeology anthropology cultural history art history museology and cultural heritage The result is a volume that resonates with richly documented and theoretically informed case studies that illustrate how the experiences of war can be embodied in and represented by an endless variety of artefacts whose social lives have endured for almost a century and that continue to shape our perceptions of an increasingly dangerous world

Film is Like a Battleground Marsha Gordon, 2017

Film is Like a Battleground Sam Fuller's War Movies is the first book to focus on the genre that best defined the American director's career the war film It draws on previously unexplored archival materials such as Fuller's Federal Bureau of Investigation files and WWII era 16mm films to explore the director's lifelong interest in making challenging thought provoking and often politically dangerous movies about war. After establishing the roots of Fuller's cinematographic schooling in the trenches during World War II including careful consideration of his 16mm footage of a Nazi camp at the end of that war, Film is Like a Battleground explores Fuller's first forays into hot war representation in Hollywood with the pioneering Korean conflict films The Steel Helmet 1951 and Fixed Bayonets 1951. This pair of films introduced Fuller to his first run ins with the American political machine when they triggered both FBI and Department of Defense investigations into his political sympathies and affiliations. Fuller's cold war films Pickup on South Street 1953 and though it veers into hot war territory Hell and High Water 1954 are Fuller's responses to the political pressures he had now personally experienced and resented. A chapter on Fuller's representation of pre American invasion Vietnam in China Gate 1957 alongside his unrealized Vietnam war screenplay The Rifle ca late 1960s illustrates the degree to which Fuller's representation of war and nation shifted even as he continued to probe war's impossible contradictions. Film is Like a Battleground would be incomplete without a thorough exploration of the films depicting the war Fuller personally experienced and spent a lifetime contemplating. WWII Verboten 1959, Merrill's Marauder 1962 and The Big Red One 1980 demonstrate Fuller's representation of a morally justifiable war. Fuller's 1959 CBS television pilot Dogface offers a glimpse at one of Fuller's failed attempts to bring his WWII story into American living rooms. The book concludes with a chapter about a documentary film made late in the director's life that returns Fuller to the actual site of the Nazi's Falkenau camp at which he discusses his experiences there and that powerful unforgettable footage he shot in the spring of 1945.

Churchill's Army Stephen Bull, 2016-09-22 Winston Churchill Britain's iconic war time Prime Minister is inextricably linked with the victorious British Army of 1939 to 1945. Yet hindsight propaganda and the imperative of the defeat of Hitler and Imperial Japan have led to a tendency to oversimplify the image of Churchill the war leader and his Army. For whilst Churchill was undeniably a towering statesman his relations with both the Army and War Office were ambiguous and altered considerably not only with the progress of the Second World War but over decades. In this comprehensive book Stephen Bull examines every aspect of the British Army during the Second World War and considers in detail the strengths and weaknesses of an organisation that was tested to its limits on many fronts but made an immense contribution to the successful Allied outcome. The book explores the structure of military power from the men who ran it the Generals to the detail of the regiments they commanded. It looks at the uniforms the soldiers wore and the badges and insignia they bore on their uniforms. The weaponry Churchill's army used is discussed in detail from small arms including rifles bayonets grenades carbines and machine guns to the massed firepower of the artillery along with the increasing sophistication of tanks and other military vehicles during the period. Finally the role of auxiliary and special forces and their contribution to the campaign is considered. The comprehensive text is enhanced by more than 200 contemporary photographs.

Steel Helmet: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Steel Helmet : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
