Australia's New Aged John McCallum, 2023-04-28 The idea that our society is ageing is a popular source of gloomy predictions for the future We see today's youth struggling in their mature years to pay for the masses of geriatric baby boomers whose productive years lie far behind Australia's New Aged shows that this belief is part reality and part myth While there will be an increase in the proportion of aged people in the next 20 years this is a temporary phenomenon and it is likely that tomorrow's elderly will quite differently from their parents Australia's New Aged examines public policy for the aged in the context of an increasingly vocal and active elderly population and cutbacks to health and welfare spending The authors argue that policy makers have become trapped in a social problem approach to ageing that assumes the elderly are a homogeneous disadvantaged group with common interests They examine a range of cases and identify negative consequences of inappropriate assumptions in terms of structural blindness and brutality They show that this approach is no longer viable and argue that both policy makers and the aged care industry will need to be more sensitive to diversity and more flexible than ever before Australia's New Aged is essential reading for students policy makers and anyone working with the aged John McCallum is Professor of Public Health and Dean of the Faculty of Health at the University of Western Sydney Macarthur and co editor of Grey Policy 1990 Karin Geiselhart is a journalist previously employed by the Office for the Status of Women in Canberra

Australia's Lost Films Ray Edmondson, Andrew Pike, 1982 Australia's Lost Films was published by the National Library of Australia to coincide with THE LAST FILM SEARCH a project to find as many of these important films as possible and commit them to the care of the National Film and Sound Archive But with its many photographs and a complete checklist of silent feature films 1896-1930 the book stands as an important record of a necessarily little known part of Australia's cinematic past

Australia's Writers Graeme Kinross-Smith, 1980 An account of more than fifty of Australia's most important authors poets and dramatists They range from the convict writers to major contemporary writers

A History of the Book in Australia, 1891-1945 Martyn Lyons, John Arnold, 2001 Collection of essays and case studies outlining Australian book production and consumption from the 1880s to the end of World War II Explores all aspects of print culture including authorship editing design and printing publication distribution bookselling libraries and reading habits Includes photos contributor notes bibliography and index Two further books in the A History of the Book in Australia project are planned Lyons is Professor of History at the University of New South Wales He has previously written with Lucy Taksa Australian Readers Remember Arnold is Deputy Director of the National Centre for Australian Studies Monash University He has previously co-edited the Biography of Australian Literature A-E

Australian Bushranging Charles White, 1921

History Of Australia (Volumes 3 & 4) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1824-1888 takes the story of Australia through the momentous discovery of gold and the separation of Victoria from New South Wales to the centenary of the coming of European civilisation to Australia on 26 January 1888 The story is one of destruction as well as construction the destruction of the Aborigines and the construction of an essentially English bourgeois society and the taming of an alien and seemingly sterile land This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive

The Recipe for Rubber Ralph Stock, 1913

National Geographic Traveler - Australia Roff Smith, 2010 An illustrated travel guide to Australia with full color photographs detailed maps and information on accommodations restaurants walking and driving tours history culture and tourist sites

A History of Australia Mark Peel, Christina Twomey, 2017-12-22 This vivid multi-dimensional history considers the key cultural social political and economic events of Australia's history Deftly weaving these issues into the wider global context Mark Peel and Christina Twomey provide an engaging overview of the country's past from its first Indigenous people to the great migrations of recent centuries and to those living within the more anxiously controlled borders of the present day This engaging textbook is an ideal resource for undergraduate students and postgraduate students taking modules or courses on the History of Australia It will also appeal to general readers who are interested in obtaining a thorough overview of the entire history of Australia from the earliest times to the present in one concise volume

National Geographic Traveler - Australia Roff Martin Smith, 2014 This guide to Australia offers a comprehensive portrait of the country It includes numerous mapped walking and driving tours 3D illustrations detailed visitor information and an introduction to Australia's history and
