Stenographers To Power Media And Propaganda:

Stenographers to Power David Barsamian,1992

Mass Media, Mass Propaganda Anthony DiMaggio,2008-04-28

Mass Media Mass Propaganda analyzes a wide range of issues domestic and international concerning American and global news coverage of the U S War on Terror Topics reviewed include media coverage of the invasion and occupation of Iraq the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction Iraqi civil war and resistance to occupation September 11th and Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan human rights violations in Iraqm domestic anti way dissent and censorship and potential future targets in the War on Terror This work approaches the study of media through a political economy analysis examining the ways in which the American corporate media works to reinforce official views and propaganda and the ways in which it challenges official pro war platforms A comparative approach is taken in contrasting the American mass media with other media institutions from the Progressive Left American press the British and Australian press and Arab electronic media Major models analyzed and evaluated throughout this work include the Propaganda Model developed by Noam Chomsky and Edward Herman and the Indexing Model elaborated upon by scholars such as W Lance Bennett Steven Livingston and Jonathan Mermin The Discourse of Propaganda John Oddo,2019-01-18 In the early 1990s false reports of Iraqi soldiers in Kuwait allowing premature infants to die by removing them from their incubators helped to justify the Persian Gulf War just as spurious reports of weapons of mass destruction later undergirded support for the Iraq War in 2003 In The Discourse of Propaganda John Oddo examines these and other such cases to show how successful wartime propaganda functions as a discursive process Oddo argues that propaganda is more than just misleading rhetoric generated by one person or group it is an elaborate process that relies on recontextualization ideally on a massive scale to keep it alive and effective In a series of case studies he analyzes both textual and visual rhetoric as well as the social and material conditions that allow them to circulate tracing how instances of propaganda are constructed performed and repeated in diverse contexts such as speeches news reports and popular everyday discourse By revealing the agents inter texts and cultural practices involved in propaganda campaigns The Discourse of Propaganda shines much needed light on the topic and challenges its readers to consider the complicated processes that allow propaganda to flourish This book will appeal not only to scholars of rhetoric and propaganda but also to those interested in unfolding the machinations motivating America s recent military interventions

Handbook of Political Discourse Piotr Cap,2023-02-14 Synthesising diverse research avenues for politics discourse and political discourse this cutting edge Handbook examines the formative traditions current theoretical and methodological landscape and genres and domains over which political discourse extends

The Social Construction of International News Philo C. Wasburn,2002-11-30 Wasburn compares U S commercial news reports on a wide variety of events with those produced by the news media of several other nations The events include the Falklands War the Iran Iraq War the Tiananmen Square Uprising several political assassinations major trade disputes between the U S and Japan the Intifada U S presidential nominating conventions and a presidential inauguration Different patterns of coverage amount of attention given an event language used to describe an event selection of particular occurrences to characterize an event and descriptions of U S and international public opinion of the event are shown to reflect different political economic and strategic interests of nations historical contexts in which news was constructed national differences in values that influence the production of news and differences in historically specific relations between news media and the governments of their countries Attention is given to contrasts between the national image of the United States constructed by U S commercial news media and the images of the United States produced by various foreign news media This book will be of particular interest to scholars students and researchers involved with political communication journalism political science and political sociology Understanding Media Propaganda in the 21st Century Simon Foley,2021-09-02 First published in 1988 Herman and Chomsky s Manufacturing Consent remains the go to book for those interested in understanding why the mainstream media act as vehicles for power elite propaganda The analytical heart of Manufacturing Consent lies in what it calls The Propaganda Model According to this model there are five filters which all newsworthy stories have to pass through before reaching the public sphere However a lot has changed in the subsequent thirty something years Consequently a key question that needs to be addressed is whether Manufacturing Consent is still fit for purpose The conceit underpinning Understanding Media Propaganda in the 21st Century Manufacturing Consent Revisited and Revised is that the election of Trump in 2016 constitutes the proverbial year zero for fourth estate journalism As a result of the journalistic cultural revolution that ensued it argues that the Propaganda Model needs to be overhauled if it is to retain its epistemological bona fides To this end this book is a radical in the true critical sense of the word intervention into the propaganda fake news debate For students in the broadest sense of the term of media studies journalism communication studies and sociology it provides both a compelling critique of Herman and Chomsky s Propaganda Model while at the same time proffering a new explanatory model to understand why MSM output typically replicates the stenographer for power playbook Media Bias, Perspective, and State Repression Christian Davenport,2010 This book examines information reported within the media regarding the interaction between the Black Panther Party and government agents in the Bay Area of California 1967 1973 Christian Davenport argues that the geographic locale and political orientation of the newspaper influences how specific details are reported including who starts and ends the conflict who the Black Panthers target government or non government actors and which part of the government responds the police or court Specifically proximate and government oriented sources provide one assessment of events whereas proximate and dissident oriented sources have another both converge on specific aspects of the conflict The methodological implications of the study are clear Davenport s findings prove that in order to understand contentious events it is crucial to understand who collects or distributes the information in order to comprehend who reportedly does what to whom as well as why Media Communication James Watson,2016-01-08 This new edition of a popular book provides an overview of mass media in society today With illuminating examples and enhanced international coverage Watson covers the core areas for media and communication degrees as well as discussing hot topics such as the possibilities brought about by digital technology for citizen involvement in the media The Political Economy of Dissent Peter Blunt,Cecilia

Escobar,Vlassis Missos,2025-10-22 In 2020 Noam Chomsky asserted that the time to panic about the existential threats posed by nuclear war global warming and the stifling of informed debate in supposedly open and democratic societies was upon us and that it was the duty of concerned citizens to act accordingly Hastened by the lingering aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis the COVID 19 pandemic the proxy war in Ukraine the decline of US economic hegemony and increasing hostility between the US and China he concluded in early 2023 that unless the US could be persuaded to cooperate with its declared adversaries and capitalism could be overthrown or defanged there was little hope for survival The authors of this book argue that achieving these ends will depend greatly on effective individual and collective worldwide dissent The book analyses and exemplifies dissent in the main domains of institutionalised capitalist control and the manufacture of uninformed consent namely political economy education the media and IT work and trade unions the commons and communities and culture And thereby gives voice and hope to the downtrodden and marginalised including indigenous peoples and those of the global south It provides an uplifting counter to the otherwise seemingly overwhelming expression of uninformed consent one that will inspire by example and be an antidote to the fear and defeatism instilled by capitalist intransigence indoctrination and control The book is addressed to students scholars and researchers primarily but its breadth of coverage authenticity and plain writing style will appeal to activists community organisers and concerned citizens both in industrialised countries and the global south Discourse and Power Teun A van Dijk,2017-09-16 Teun van Dijk is one of the founders of Critical Discourse Studies and this collection brings together some of his most important writing framed by new introductory material He examines the role of discourse in the reproduction of power and domination in society and the ways in which media and political elites control access to public discourse Cultural Hegemony in the United States

Lee Artz,Bren Ortega Murphy,2000-06-23 Popular usage equates hegemony with dominance a meaning far from Antonio Gramsci's original concept where hegemony appears as a contested culture that meets the minimum needs of the majority while serving the interests of the dominant class This text is the first to present cultural hegemony in its original form as a process of consent resistance and coercion Hegemony is illustrated with examples from American history and contemporary culture including practices that represent race gender and class in everyday life U S cultural hegemony depends in part on how well media government and other dominant institutions popularize beliefs and organize practices that promote individualism and consumerism Corporate dominance and market values reign only through the consent of the majority which for the time being finds material political and cultural benefit from existing social relations As deep social contradictions undermine brittle hegemonic relations the subordinate majority including blacks women and workers will seek a new cultural hegemony that overcomes race gender and class inequality Sites of Genocide Adam Jones,2022-05-17

Genocide may be the most powerful word in the English language What is the significance and relevance of this formative concept today In an extraordinarily wide ranging collection of essays and interviews Adam Jones one of the world s leading genocide scholars explores the uses and controversies surrounding the term that Raphael Lemkin coined during the Second World War to describe and prohibit mass atrocities against defined human groups In a style that is learned but always accessible and engaging Jones addresses key historical and contemporary issues such as What were the motivations and proclaimed justifications for genocide in the long nineteenth century that shaped our modern world How can humanitarian interventions in genocide avoid sliding into new imperialism What are the connections between religion and genocide How can the gender variable in genocide perpetration and victimization be understood A wide range of historical and contemporary genocides and crimes against humanity from the eighteenth century slave rebellion in Haiti to Myanmar s destruction of the Rohingya and to the forms of structural and systemic violence that Jones argues should be encompassed by any global historical understanding of genocide Sites of Genocide is illustrated with photos from Jones s own collection and other sources It will be of interest to all students and scholars of human rights and for general readers seeking a point of entry to the rich and provocative debates in comparative genocide studies Historical Dictionary of American Propaganda Martin J. Manning,Herbert Romerstein,2004-11-30 From the French and Indian War in 1754 with Benjamin Franklin s Join or Die cartoon to the present war in Iraq propaganda has played a significant role in American history The Historical Dictionary of American Propaganda provides more than 350 entries focusing primarily on propaganda created by the U S government throughout its existence Two specialists one a long time research librarian at the U S Information Agency the USIA and the State Department s Bureau of Diplomacy and the other a former USIA Soviet Disinformation Officer Martin J Manning and Herbert Romerstein bring a profound knowledge of official U S propaganda to this reference work The dictionary is further enriched by a substantial bibliography including films and videos and an outstanding annotated list of more than 105 special collections worldwide that contain material important to the study of U S propaganda Students researchers librarians faculty and interested general readers will find the Historical Dictionary of American Propaganda an authoritative ready reference work for quick information on a wide range of events publications media people government agencies government plans organizations and symbols that provided mechanisms to promote America s interests both abroad and domestically in peace and in war Almost all entries conclude with suggestions for further research and the topically arranged bibliography provides a further comprehensive listing of important resources including films and videos Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies James Watson,Anne Hill,2015-10-22 The Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies has provided students and the general public alike with a gateway into the study of intercultural communication public relations and marketing communications since 1984 In this 9th edition James Watson and Anne Hill provide a detailed compendium of the different facets of personal group mass media and internet communication that continues to be a vital source of information for all those interested in how communication affects our lives They cover new applications and developments such as the incorporation of Neuroscience techniques in advertising and marketing Other updates include Cyber bullying Twitter scandals conduct in media organizations on line lobbying global protesting petitioning and gender issues relating to social media in general While new entries explore the profound shifts that have taken place in the world of communication in recent years the purpose of this new edition is not necessarily to keep abreast of every new media event but to reflect the trends that influence and prompt such events such as the Leveson Inquiry and Report and phone hacking via mobile phones Politics seems to be playing out more on Twitter than in The Times This volume seeks to make its twenty first century readers more media literate as well as more critical consumers of modern news

Reality TV Mark Andrejevic, 2004-09-08 Drawing on cultural theory and interviews with fans cast members and producers this book places the reality TV trend within a broader social context tracing its relationship to the development of a digitally enhanced surveillance based interactive economy and to a savvy mistrust of mediated reality in general Surveying several successful reality TV formats the book links the rehabilitation of Big Brother to the increasingly important economic role played by the work of being watched The author enlists critical social theory to examine how the appeal of the real is deployed as a pervasive but false promise of democratization

Encyclopaedia of Propaganda Robert Cole, 2022-03-24 The Encyclopedia of Propaganda examines all aspects of propaganda through history and is organized in an A to Z format The set defines the arenas in which propaganda is used such as politics war advertising and media pinpoints the political systems in which it is used such as Nazism Communism and McCarthyism and describes notable progenitors of propaganda and their works including Hitler and Mein Kampf Machiavelli and The Prince Sun Tzu and The Art of War and Plato and The Republic The Encyclopedia of Propaganda also examines noteworthy individuals who have employed propaganda to further their own agenda including Walt Disney Fidel Castro Jane Fonda the Rev Jerry Falwell Saddam Hussein Rush Limbaugh and Eleanor Roosevelt Organizations which have utilized propaganda in a systematic fashion are also included among them the Black Panther Party the Sandinista National Liberation Front and the People for Ethical Treatment of Animals This well organized easy to use reference should be a valuable research tool for students of world history politics and literature

Propaganda in Twentieth Century War and Politics Robert Cole, 1996-11-07 Annotated bibliography of books and articles written about propaganda theory and history propaganda delivered in literature press and pulpit propaganda and revolution reaction social change and international politics dealings with fascist and other totalitarian systems and materials dealing with remodeling postwar Western societies

Burning All Illusions David Edwards, 1996 This is a book about freedom Above all about the idea that there is often no greater obstacle to freedom than the assumption that it has already been attained What prison after all could be more secure than that deemed to be the world where boundaries of action and thought are assumed to define not the limits of the permissible but the limits of the possible In the past we have been prisoners of tyrants and dictators and consequently have needed to win our freedom in very concrete physical terms We now need to free ourselves not from a slave ship or a concentration camp but from many of the illusions fostered in our democratic society A wise and acute analysis of the way our minds are controlled not in a totalitarian state but in a democratic one Edwards also suggests how we can escape this control in a self help book which unlike other books of this genre connects our inner world of alienation with the world outside Howard Zinn A treatise on what freedom truly means Burning All Illusions is an important philosophical and psychology text that should be on every political science curriculum reading list Wisconsin Book Watch Critical
