Simpson and Patrick McAleer present a collection of essays that analyze assess and critique King's post 1995 compositions Purposefully side stepping studies of earlier work these essays are arranged into three main parts the first section examines five King novels published between 2009 and 2013 offering genuinely fresh scholarship on King the second part looks at the development of King's distinct brand of horror the third section departs from probing the content of King's writing and instead focuses on King's process By concentrating on King's most recent writings this collection offers provocative insights into the author's work featuring essays on Dr Sleep Duma Key The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Joyland Under the Dome and others As such Stephen King's Contemporary Classics will appeal to general fans of the author's work as well as scholars of Stephen King and modern literature
