Stepmother Tongue The:

The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner, 1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature

Metaphors of Multilingualism Rainer

Guldin, 2020-03-27 Metaphors of Multilingualism explores changing attitudes towards multilingualism by focusing on shifts both in the choice and in the use of metaphors Rainer Guldin uses linguistics philosophy literature literary theory and related disciplines to trace the radical redefinition of multilingualism that has taken place over the last decades This overall change constitutes a paradigmatic shift However despite the emergence of the new paradigm the traditional monolingual point of view is still significantly influencing present day attitudes towards multilingualism Consequently the emergent paradigm has to be studied in close connection with its predecessor This book is the first extensive attempt to provide a critical overview of the key metaphors that organize current perceptions of multilingualism Instead of an exhaustive list of possible metaphors of multilingualism the emphasis is on three closely interrelated and overlapping clusters that play a central role in both paradigms organic metaphors of the body kinship and gender metaphors as well as spatial metaphors The examples are taken from different languages among them French German Chinese Japanese Spanish and Brazilian Portuguese This is ground breaking reading for scholars and researchers in the fields of linguistics literature philosophy media studies anthropology history and cultural studies

Narrative Performances of Mothering in South Asian Diasporic Fiction Sarah

Knor, 2022-12-30 Examining a range of South Asian Anglophone diasporic fiction and poetry this monograph opens a new dialogue between diaspora studies and gender studies It shows how discourses of diaspora benefit from re examining their own critical relation to concepts of the maternal and the motherland Rather than considering maternity as a fixed or naturally given category it challenges essentialist conceptions and explores mothering as a performative practice which actively produces discursive meaning This innovative approach also involves an investigation of central metaphors in nationalist and diasporic rhetorics bringing critical attention to the strategies they employ and the unique aesthetic forms they produce

The Walking Doll Robert Henry Newell, 1872

Creativity in Exile, 2016-08-09 Until recently discussion of creativity in exile has focussed almost exclusively on a few European male writers from Dante to Joseph Brodsky who sought refuge abroad from political oppression This volume with accompanying 100 minute DVD ranges much more widely to examine the extraordinary creative endeavours in a range of media of men and women in almost every part of the world who for a host of different reasons have experienced displacement from their homelands It brings together papers by academics many of whom have experienced exile themselves on topics as diverse as the visual arts in Colombia fiction by displaced indigenous peoples convicts and slaves as exiles writings about the partition of Bengal the culture of Palestinian Americans philosophers on exile and the significance of cooking to refugee communities which are interspersed with poems by contemporary writers in exile The use of the DVD format has permitted the inclusion of studio interviews with notable exiled writers from Nigeria Cyprus and Bulgaria extracts from two films relating to exile a live reading of his work by an Iraqi poet an audio and sculptural installation by a First Nations Canadian artist and a performance by musicians in exile from Burundi

The Wheelman Samuel Sidney McClure, J. F. McClure, J. S. Phillips, C. E. Pratt, 1883      Bilingual Minds Aneta Pavlenko, 2006-03-09 Do bi and multilinguals perceive themselves differently in their respective languages Do they experience different emotions How do they express emotions and do they have a favourite language for emotional expression How are emotion words and concepts represented in the bi and multilingual lexicons This ground breaking book opens up a new field of study bilingualism and emotions and provides intriguing answers to these and many related questions

Language, Culture, Computation: Computational Linguistics and Linguistics Nachum Dershowitz, Ephraim Nissan, 2014-12-05 This Festschrift volume is published in Honor of Yaacov Choueka on the occasion of his 75th birthday The present three volumes liber amicorum several years in gestation honours this outstanding Israeli computer scientist and is dedicated to him and to his scientific endeavours Yaacov's research has had a major impact not only within the walls of academia but also in the daily life of lay users of such technology that originated from his research An especially amazing aspect of the temporal span of his scholarly work is that half a century after his influential research from the early 1960s a project in which he is currently involved is proving to be a sensation as will become apparent from what follows Yaacov Choueka began his research career in the theory of computer science dealing with basic questions regarding the relation between mathematical logic and automata theory From formal languages Yaacov moved to natural languages He was a founder of natural language processing in Israel developing numerous tools for Hebrew He is best known for his primary role together with Aviezri Fraenkel in the development of the Responsa Project one of the earliest fulltext retrieval systems in the world More recently he has headed the Friedberg Genizah Project which is bringing the treasures of the Cairo Genizah into the Digital Age This third part of the three volume set covers a range of topics related to language ranging from linguistics to applications of computation to language using linguistic tools The papers are grouped in topical sections on natural language processing representing the lexicon and neologisation      Exiles, Travellers and Vagabonds, 2016-10-20 Travel writing migrant writing exile writing expatriate writing and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon. The presence of such genres in women's writing however poses a rich and unique body of work. This volume examines the texts of Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement. Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement, the study of women's mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds. Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women, exiles, migrants, expatriates and travellers, the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness, relevance or validity of such terms for conceptualising today's complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein.

Connecting Histories Bonnie Thomas, 2017-04-27. The Francophone Caribbean boasts a trove of literary gems. Distinguished by innovative, elegant writing and thought-provoking questions of history and identity, this exciting body of work demands scholarly attention. Its authors treat the traumatic legacies of shared and personal histories pervading Caribbean experience in striking ways, delineating a path towards reconciliation and healing. The creation of diverse personal narratives encompassing autobiography, autofiction, heavily autobiographical fiction, travel writing and reflective essay remains characteristic of many Caribbean writers and offers poignant illustrations of the complex interchange between shared and personal pasts and how they affect individual lives. Through their historically informed autobiography, the authors in this study—Maryse Condé, Gisèle Pineau, Patrick Chamoiseau, Edwidge Danticat and Dany Laferrière—offer compelling insights into confronting, coming to terms with and reconciling their past. The employment of personal narratives as the vehicle to carry out this investigation points to a tension evident in these writers' reflections, which constantly move between the collective and the personal. As an inescapably complex network, their past extends beyond the notion of a single private life. These contemporary authors from Martinique, Guadeloupe and Haiti intertwine their personal memories with reflections on the histories of their homelands and on the European and North American countries they adopt through choice or necessity. They reveal a multitude of deep connections that illuminate distinct Francophone Caribbean experiences.

The Young Step-mother; Or, a Chronicle of Mistakes Yonge, 1861. Critical Identities in Contemporary Anglophone Diasporic Literature Françoise Kral, 2009-06-25. The figure of the migrant has been celebrated by some as an icon of postmodernity, an emblematic figure in a world increasingly characterized by transnationalism, globalization and mass migrations. Kral takes issue with this view of the migrant experience through in-depth analyses of writers including Salman Rushdie, Zadie Smith and Monica Ali.

From Puella to Plautus Tamara Trykar-Lu, 2019-06-21. Whether to enlarge your general education, improve your English or just because you are curious about the society that has had such a lasting influence on our history, our language, our thoughts and our culture, you should and can learn Latin. Tamara Trykar-Lu's charming and delightful introduction to Latin, From Puella to Plautus, Part I is designed for beginning to intermediate Latin study at the high school or college level either with the aid of a teacher and classroom or simply for personal enjoyment and enrichment A thorough review of English grammar with detailed explanations makes it easy for the reader to grasp new concepts in Latin Learning Latin vocabulary becomes manageable once you realize how much Latin vocabulary there is in English You will quickly learn to read Latin with short stories and gradually more demanding selections Readers will translate the story of Romulus and Remus and the founding of Rome but also the tale of Nivea Snow White and some parts of Shakespeare s plays Short sections show how English developed how Latin influenced it and where they both belong in the world of languages Each chapter ends with a brief outline of some aspect of Roman culture such as housing fauna and flora games crafts water supply and cooking with recipes And last but not least there are informative tidbits drawings cartoons jokes riddles crossword puzzles and of course pictures distributed throughout the book For while foreign language study should be logical coherent and rigorous it need not be heavy handed or pedantic and certainly not dull Ideal for use in courses or for brushing up your language skills From Puella to Plautus is a lively and engaging book about the Latin language and life in the Roman Empire

Alter Ego Guido Snel,2004 Frank illuminating and poignant immigrant tales from twenty of Europe s writers artists politicians and scholars looking back at their roots their journeys and their divided loyalties From Split to Screened Selves Rachel Gabara,2006 This book is a study of recent autobiographies by French and Francophone African writers and filmmakers all of whom reject simple first person narration and experiment with narrative voice and form to represent fragmented subjectivity Gabara investigates autobiography across media from print to photography and film as well as across the colonial encounter from France to Francophone North and West Africa Reading works by Roland Barthes Nathalie Sarraute Assia Djebar Cyril Collard David Achkar and Raoul Peck she argues that autobiographical film and African autobiography subgenres that have until now been overlooked or dismissed by critics offer new and important possibilities for self representation in the twenty first century Not only do these new forms of autobiography deserve our attention but any study of contemporary autobiography is incomplete without them The Humility of Multiple Blessings Dr. Dess Amanu,2021-07-22 The Humility of multiple blessings highlights the extreme variations between the abundant amenities of life in the developed western world and the extreme abject poverty abound in the underdeveloped world leading to destitution While recognizing the missing hard work in some elements of the society at both ends the book focuses on the abundance of possibilities so long as one does not yield to failures as the conclusive dead end but instead takes a positive look at the failures in order to reap beneficial outcomes by not accepting crushing defeatism Countering the adversities the author brings to light the critical importance of extreme hard work to achieve a set goal laid out according to the will of God showered with blessings on a person In fact the author motivates energizes and exhorts all generations never to take failure as permanent defeat but instead keeping away from cutting corners to blame others rather than taking action to work harder every step of the way until success is achieved since it is doable It is undeniable that failure is an integral part of a journey to success and simply a precious price we are bound to pay in order to achieve that most desirable success      Before Midnight
