Social Roots of Violent Extremism Liana Maria Daher, Francesco Antonelli, Valeria Rosato, 2025-08-02 This volume examines the environments that enable radicalization and extremism today drawing from extensive European research based on the Horizon 2020 project PARTICIPATION Examining theoretical and practical studies the book analyzes how the erosion of institutional integration social participation and political stability among marginalized groups can lead to feelings of deprivation alienation and self victimization In these environments individuals often from disadvantaged or immigrant backgrounds rebuild their identities through extremism finding a sense of belonging in radical and sometimes violent ideas that are easily accessible online The book further sheds light on this paradox of modern extremism while extremists embrace technological tools like digital platforms they reject core modern values such as personal freedom and cultural diversity This volume argues for innovative approaches to radicalization emphasizing prevention through the creation of inclusive social environments and critical dialogue on the role of digital technology in radical movements

The Challenge of Radicalization and Extremism , 2022-10-04 This interdisciplinary volume on The Challenge of Radicalization and Extremism Integrating Research on Education and Citizenship in the Context of Migration addresses the need for educational researchers to place their work in a broader social and political context by connecting it to the current and highly relevant issue of extremism and radicalization It is just as important for researchers of extremism and radicalization to strengthen their conceptual links with educational fields especially with education for democratic citizenship as for researchers in education to get more familiar with issues of migration This book meets a current shortage of research that addresses these issues across subjects and disciplines to inform both scientific and professional stakeholders in the educational and social sectors The volume is divided into three parts The first part Foundations provides fundamental research on radicalization and the rejection of democratic values In the second part Analysis of Preconditions within the Educational Context key risk and protective factors against radicalization for young people are explored Finally the third part Approaches for Prevention and Intervention offers concrete suggestions for prevention and intervention methods within formal and informal educational contexts The contributions show how new avenues for prevention can be explored through integrating citizenship education s twofold function to assimilate and to empower acculturation and perceived discrimination of Muslim youth across Western countries in relation to social work as well as the radicalisation and extremist views and actions of a small number of Muslim youth. It draws on relevant theoretical frameworks and research to examine the different approaches taken in social work practice. Some countries consider multi-agency approaches particularly how public health practice can inform interventions and strategies. Others take a public health approach looking for risk factors and seeking protective factors to develop suitable interventions within the communities through public engagement and partnership. As well as examining and discussing the above approaches, this book critically examines government and community based approaches to radicalisation and extremism and strategies for combating these. This volume will be a valuable resource for social work students including other disciplines such as psychology, public health, psychiatry, sociology, political science and community development. It will also be of interest to policy makers, practitioners and researchers.

Radicalisation, Extremism and Social Work Practice Lena Robinson, M Rafik Gardee, 2022-03-30 Radicalisation Extremism and Social Work Practice is the first book to explore cultural identity

Research findings on violent youth radicalisation in the UK, Cyprus, France, Greece and Belgium The RADEX Partnership, 2022-01-14. This e-book brings together the work of five organisations working on the RADEX project which is supported by the Erasmus Programme under KA205 Strategic Partnerships for youth education. It is coordinated by the Restorative Justice for All International Institute, United Kingdom, and is delivered in partnership with SYNTHESIS Center for Research and Education, Cyprus; ALDA France; Club for UNESCO, Greece; and Inclusive Europe, Belgium. The RADEX project aims to make an impact on countering, preventing and diverting violent radicalisation of youth by equipping young people, youth workers, social workers and youth organisations with tools to identify patterns, methods and different processes of violent radicalisation. This e-book presents a comprehensive report analysing the methodological framework and the findings of the research phase from the partner countries on radicalisation and together with the online course aims to bring forward positive skills for young people to identify, deter and combat violent radicalisation. Grant Agreement N 2020 2 UK01 KA205 59FDDA02. Co-funded by Erasmus and coordinated by Professor Dr Theo Gavrielides. Domestic Extremist Peachy Keenan, 2023-06-06. Spot on, often satirical, always insightful contributing editor of The American Mind and mother of a brood, Peachy Keenan argues that the only way we can save our families, ourselves and the world, even California, is by embracing our inner domestic extremists and sweeping failed notions of third wave feminism and identity politics nonsense into the garbage can of history. In This House We Believe Parents Are the Bosses of Their Kids, Babies Are Good, More Babies Are Better, Two Sexes Are Plenty, Your Career Is Overrated, Feminism Is How the Unpopular and Undateable Cope with Life, Mainstream American Culture Destroys Families, We Are Going to Win. We're in a culture war and Peachy Keenan is not taking prisoners. This raucous new book is her rallying cry for normal people stuck in the foxholes and appalled by the status quo. Mothers and fathers, regular American families, men and women can win this battle together. But a lot of ground has been lost For decades we stood around and watched as feminists and progressives steamrolled through our institutions those formerly robust now comically inept pillars of civilization like our government our schools and crucially our families With matchless insight and devastating humor Peachy Keenan makes the case for domestic extremism turning away from the diseased offerings of the elites the media Hollywood your child s school and Big Tech and embracing a more human way of life The life changing magic of domestic extremism will spark joy and help you build a legacy that will enrich the lives of your many descendants
