Vogue on Hubert de Givenchy Drusilla Beyfus, 2015-10-06 The fashion aesthetic of handsome aristocratic Hubert de Givenchy combined the traditions of haute couture creative luxurious and perfectionist with a modern entrepreneurial sensibility. In a career spanning 40 years he created the most glamorous of evening dresses, developed the influential sack dress and produced debonair daytime suits that have never gone out of fashion. He also famously defined the sartorial image of Audrey Hepburn both onscreen and off, designing the little black dress for Breakfast at Tiffany's. Created by the editors of British Vogue, Vogue on Hubert de Givenchy features biography and history, studded with more than 80 images from their unique archive of images taken by leading photographers such as Irving Penn, Patrick Demarchelier and Cecil Beaton.

Robert Polidori Robert Polidori, 2005 A wide-ranging collection of images by renowned photographer Robert Polidori is showcased to great effect in this Stern Portfolio. Haunting cityscapes of Shanghai and Brasilia are included along with photographs that reveal the social life beneath the patina of Havana's old quarter and imbue the city with its distinctive identity. Also included are Polidori's disturbing yet stunning pictures from the abandoned region around Chernobyl 15 years after the nuclear plant was destroyed there. By contrast, the chapter on Versailles highlights the restoration of faded aristocratic elegance. On the surface, this Canadian-born New York-based photographer's subjects are buildings, but his real interest is habitat. He focuses his camera on the remnants and traces of the living he finds left in backrooms, in solitary corridors and worn-on-naked facades to set up surprising contrasts and unique perspectives. In doing so, he succeeds in capturing the true essence of a place and in his masterful compositions the inner lives of people and their memories spring to life and unfold before our eyes.
