Reflections on Europe Hans-Åke Persson, 2007 When Dutch and subsequently French voters rejected the Draft Treaty for a Constitution for Europe in Spring 2005 many voices called for a pause for reflection This book is in part a result of that moment of reflection We wanted to contribute to the debate about Europe but crucially we sought to do so by taking a step back from the problem formation and agenda setting of Brussels For the authors of this volume one key to establishing critical distance has been the reappraisal of the historical perspective Another has been the problematisation of Europe as a space as opposed to looking for a definition of borders The authors also seek critical distance through a focus on the tension between Europe as a culture as a polity and as an economy These tensions have often been neglected or even ignored and the relationships have been seen as more or less synonymous and harmonious The aim of this volume then is two fold It wants developing a critical distance to the present Europe to contribute to the vivid academic research and debate on Europe which too often either develops distance without commenting on the present state of affairs or comments on the present without critical distance

Bibliographie deutscher Literatur in polnischer Übersetzung Jacek St Buras, 1996 Sternstunden der Menschheit Stefan Zweig, 1968 The World of Yesterday's Humanist Today Marion Sonnenfeld, 1984-06-30 Fifty years ago Stefan Zweig who committed suicide in 1942 was the most widely read and translated living writer in the world Zweig's Vienna was a world of bright brittle superficialities in which the bourgeoisie gradually elevated the eternal business of seeing and being seen to the purpose of the existence To break through the facades of this society Zweig developed a remarkable literary and psychological method In The World of Yesterday's Humanist Today thirty scholars of history literature and music share their studies of Zweig and their insight into his works Stockholmer Germanistische Forschungen , 1974 "Das Absolute ist der Geist." Thomas O.
