epitome of a national sports figure either loved or hated with enthusiasm by millions Head Ball Coach Steve Spurrier, Buddy Martin, 2017-09-05 Now in paperback with a new afterword the New York Times bestseller by college football's most colorful endearing and successful pioneer Steve Spurrier in which he shares his story of a life in football from growing up in Tennessee to winning the Heisman Trophy to playing and coaching in the pros to leading the Florida Gators to six SEC Championships and a National Championship to elevating the South Carolina program to new heights and coaching like nobody else He's been called brash cocky arrogant pompous egotistical and hilarious but mostly he's known as the Head Ball Coach a self-ordained term introduced to the lexicon of football by none other than the man himself Steve Spurrier He is the only coach who can claim to be the winningest coach at two different SEC schools and the only person who has won both the Heisman Trophy as a player and a National Championship as a coach Or who has won a Heisman and coached a Heisman winner From the beginning Spurrier didn't want to sound like other coaches dress like other coaches and especially coach like other coaches As a controversial football pioneer he ushered in a different style of leadership and play Spurrier's press conferences were glorious he refused to lapse into coachspeak and was always entertaining although he took his football very seriously He was known for his fierce competitiveness roaming up and down the sidelines often throwing his signature visor to the ground in disgust In his memoir Spurrier talks for the first time about the circumstances under which he unexpectedly became a coach and why he resigned at South Carolina He explains his unique style the difference between winners and losers his relationship with the media why he follows the wisdom of ancient philosophers and warriors his affinity for everything taught by John Wooden and the reasons behind his relaxed regimen for living well Spurrier as always speaks candidly bringing together his thoughts about his words actions and achievements while telling countless wonderful anecdotes Jackrabbit: The Story of Clint Castleberry and the Improbable 1942 Georgia Tech Football Season

Bill Chastain, 2019-10-01 He ran like a crazed jackrabbit according to one awe-struck sportswriter Clint Castleberry was already an Atlanta area football sensation when he arrived at Georgia Tech in 1942 and in one meteoric college season he became a national sports hero as well He was the first college freshman ever to be voted All American At least one Heisman Trophy was all but certain Though weighing just 155 pounds he seemed destined to become one of the greatest tailbacks in college football history But then World War II intervened and Castleberry became instead another young man whose destiny was cut short His 19 is the only number ever retired in the illustrious history of Georgia Tech football Bill Chastain weaves Clint Castleberry's story around other legends of Georgia Tech football including John Heisman William Alexander and Bobby Dodd to create a glorious portrait of a proud football tradition and America's Greatest Generation Who's #1? Christopher J.
