You Will Make Money in Your Sleep Emily White, 2007-06-19 I was enthralled with Giacchetto You must meet him he is inspired I told a successful friend Oh if you have any money you should invest it with him Now this friend says to me Emily I'm glad I didn't listen to you I knew Dana before the time of the celebrities and I watched as the celebrities transformed his life I met him in 1992 when he came to Seattle to begin work on what would be one of his most famous deals the selling of Nirvana's first record label Sub Pop My husband was Sub Pop's general manager He owned a 1 percent share of the company and he made enough money from the deal to buy a house and give Dana 100 000 to put into a safe bond Rich ended up losing 80 000 of the investment but that was later after the nineties boom had imploded and Dana had become just another felon Because of my entanglement with Dana this is not an objective book about his life and although he initially cooperated with it it could hardly be called an authorized biography He agreed to a rule of no editorial control that the story I wrote would be the one I remembered and uncovered Yet as the story unfolded for me he became furious that he couldn't control it We parted ways before I finished the manuscript Throughout the process of writing about him I have grappled with my memory of him in the nineties when I thought he was some kind of rescuer
