Doggett, 2019 First full length study of Wallace Stevens as a thinker

Wallace Stevens Frank Doggett, 2020-03-03 Originally published in 1980 Wallace Stevens The Making of the Poem emphasizes the ideas that Wallace Stevens embeds in his poetry providing the first study to provide an intellectual biography of Stevens It examines Stevens naturalism his ideas of the self and the imagination among other topics The concepts that emerge from long reading of the poetry of Stevens are slight and basic but these concepts do accord even if they never emerge into a coherent philosophy The accordance is probably a result of Stevens preference for naturalistic thought

Stevens's Poetry of Thought Frank A. Doggett, 1966 Wallace Stevens; an Approach to His Poetry and Thought Robert Pack, 1968 A Cure of the Mind Theodore Sampson, 2000 Argues that Wallace Stevens poetry defies interpretation that his long poems particularly remain too open ended for rational paraphrase Things Merely Are Simon Critchley, 2005-02-18 This book is an invitation to read poetry Simon Critchley argues that poetry enlarges life with a range of observation power of expression and attention to language that eclipses any other medium In a rich engagement with the poetry of Wallace Stevens Critchley reveals that poetry also contains deep and important philosophical insight Above all he argues for a poetic epistemology that enables us to think afresh the philosophical problem of the relation between mind and world and ultimately to cast the problem away Drawing astutely on Kant the German and English Romantics and Heidegger Critchley argues that through its descriptions of particular things and their stubborn plainness whether water guitars trees or cats poetry evokes the mereness of things It is this experience he shows that provokes the mood of calm and releases the imaginative insight we need to press back against the pressure of reality Critchley also argues that this calm defines the cinematic eye of Terrence Malick whose work is discussed at the end of the book "A" Thought to be Rehearsed Beverly Coyle,1983 Ethics and the Subject ,2022-03-07 This volume contains nineteen essays eighteen here presented for the first time exploring the question of subjectivity as seen from an ethical perspective Part I concerns the phenomenological development of Cartesianism and the concept of narrative identity with essays addressing Levinas idea of the Other Ricoeur s Christianisation of Levinas and Dennet s concept of folk psychology Part II concerns the experience of reading ethically as mediated through genealogy and psychoanalysis The essays address the discourses of philosophy psychoanalysis film and literature and are informed by Nietzsche Freud Foucault and Lacan among others The volume will interest philosophers and critical theorists Karl Simms provides comprehensive introductions to each of the parts making the book accessible to informed general readers with an interest in cultural studies Sixteen Modern American Authors Jackson R. Bryer,1990 Praise for the earlier edition Students of modern American literature have for some years turned to Fifteen Modern American Authors 1969 as an indispensable guide to significant scholarship and criticism about twentieth century American writers In its new form Sixteenth Modern American Authors it will continue to be indispensable If it is not a desk book for all Americanists it is a book to be kept in the forefront of the bibliographical compartment of their brains American Studies

"Beyond the Last Thought" Mary Cook,Wallace Stevens,2012 Simply by Sailing in a New Direction Terry Sturm,2017-09-29 Allen Curnow 1911 2001 was at the time of his death regarded as one of the greatest of all poets writing in English For seventy years from Valley of Decision 1933 to The Bells of Saint Babel s 2001 Curnow s poetry was always on the move from his early approaches to New Zealand identity and myth to later work concerned with the philosophical encounter between word and world Curnow also played a major role in New Zealand life as editor critic commentator and anthologist as well as a much loved writer of light verse under the penname of Whim Wham In his later years he acquired an impressive international reputation winning the Commonwealth Prize for Poetry and the Queen s Gold Medal for Poetry Throughout his lifetime Allen Curnow revised selected and collected his poetry in various ways For the first time this collection brings together all of the poems that Curnow collected in his lifetime grouped in their original volumes The notes reproduce Curnow s comments on individual poems and include relevant editorial guidance This is the definitive collection of work by New Zealand s most distinguished poet Lands of Likeness Kevin Hart,2024-05-31 An original and profound exploration of contemplation from philosopher theologian and poet Kevin Hart In Lands of Likeness Kevin Hart develops a new hermeneutics of contemplation through a meditation on Christian thought and secular philosophy Drawing on Kant

Schopenhauer Coleridge and Husserl Hart first charts the emergence of contemplation in and beyond the Romantic era Next Hart shows this hermeneutic at work in poetry by Gerard Manley Hopkins Marianne Moore Wallace Stevens and others Delivered in its original form as the prestigious Gifford Lectures Lands of Likeness is a revelatory meditation on contemplation for the modern world Unlikely Muse Daniel Kornstein,2010 This trail blazing book explores previously uncharted aspects of law and literature as well as the psychology paradoxes and wonderful mystery of creativity A study of artistic inspiration Unlikely Muse examines and analyzes the lives and works of three very different writers who combine law literature and imagination nineteenth century French novelist Honor de Balzac modernist American poet Wallace Stevens and controversial playwright memoirist Lillian Hellman From the literary careers of those three writers emerge two intertwined and exciting new themes The first theme demonstrates unexpected synergy between law and literature Opening original lines of inquiry Unlikely Muse probes the possible relationship between legal training and artistic creativity A surprisingly large number of great creative artists writers such as Balzac poets such as Stevens painters such as Matisse and composers such as Tchaikovsky studied or practiced law This book asks whether such people became great creative artists because of or despite their legal background Others such as Hellman had no legal training but wrote much about the law This book sketches the intellectual atmosphere and biographical background that shaped these three writers creative process highlighting the impact of the law on their work The second theme uses these same three writers to focus on the changing role of imagination in literature From Balzac through Stevens to Hellman and beyond the author traces imagination s arc from a positive artistic quality to something that is sometimes more controversial perhaps deceitful and negative In the last few decades ever since Hellman s memoirs were attacked as untrue journalists memoirists and other writers have palmed off works of fiction as non fiction often causing literary scandals This book offers a new theory why this phenomenon is happening and how it should be regarded Tragic Thoughts at the End of Philosophy Gerald L. Bruns,1999-07-21 In this text Bruns investigates the recent phenomenon of philosophers taking an interest in literature and literary theory

Modernist Mythopoeia S. Freer,2015-03-03 Modernist Mythopoeia argues that the experimental modernist form of mythopoeia was directed towards expressing a range of metaphysical perspectives that fall between material secularism and dogmatic religion The book is a timely addition to the post secular debate as well as to the return of religion in modernist studies Badiou and American Modernist Poetics Cameron MacKenzie,2018-07-27 Badiou and American Modernist Poetics explores the correspondence between Alain Badiou s thinking on art and that of the canonical modernists T S Eliot Wallace Stevens and Ezra Pound Utilizing a multidisciplinary approach the text engages with themes of the void mastery and place present in both modernist poetry and in Badiou s philosophy Through an examination of classic modernist texts Cameron MacKenzie reveals that where Badiou hopes to go the modernists have already been On Interpretation Andrew D. Tropes, Parables, and Performatives J. Hillis Miller, 1991-12-06 Tropes Parables Performatives collects J Hillis Miller's essays on seven major twentieth century authors Lawrence Kafka Stevens Williams Woolf Hardy and Conrad For all their evident differences these essays from early to late explore a single intuition about literature which may be framed by three words trope parable and performative Throughout these essays Miller is fascinated with the tropological dimension of literary language with the way figures of speech turn aside the telling of a story or the presentation of a literary theme The exploration of this turning leads to the recognition that all works of literature are parabolic thrown beside their real meaning They tell one story but call forth something else Miller further agrees that all parables are fundamentally performative They do not merely name something or give knowledge but rather use words to make something happen to get the reader from here to there Each essay here attempts to formulate what in a given case the reader performatively enters by way of parabolic trope
