Robert Louis Stevenson and the Art of Collaboration Murfin Audrey Murfin, 2019-08-05 Explores Robert Louis Stevenson's collaborative process Contains new readings of thirteen works by Robert Louis Stevenson including several rarely discussed Sheds light on connections between authorship celebrity the literary marketplace and the creative process Supported by extensive manuscript research This book investigates Stevenson's literary collaborations with family and friends as he travelled Scotland America and the Pacific With critical readings of both major and minor Stevenson texts supported and contextualised by unpublished manuscripts and letters by both Stevenson and those he wrote with this book argues that Stevenson's writings are both a product of and a meditation on collaborative writing Stevenson's self-reflective body of work reimagines late Victorian authorship by examining the ways that authors choose material negotiate the marketplace and ultimately maintain power over their own words or let that power go Robert Louis Stevenson William Gray, 2004-03-12 More than most writers Robert Louis Stevenson requires a Literary Life Fascination with Stevenson's life the Stevenson biography is almost a minor genre has tended to eclipse his literary achievement This study focuses on Stevenson's writing practice within the different geographical cultural and political contexts that shaped it from Scotland to the South Seas Following Stevenson's own views on biography the book is not structured primarily in terms of chronology but is more a kind of literary geography than traditional literary history Stevenson, The Pirate Within Rodolphe, 2018-09-19 T00:00:00+02:00 This is the fascinating life story of Robert Louis Stevenson the beloved author of classics such as Treasure Island and Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde from his early days as an aspiring writer to his first published works his love affair and then marriage to Fanny Osbourne his success as an author his many travels across Europe and the U S and finally his voyage to the islands of the South Pacific where he eventually built the house of his dreams Stevenson never let his weak lungs which he referred to as pirates waging a battle inside him and delicate constitution stand in the way of his insatiable thirst for adventure living life on his own terms until the very end Ghosts of Santa Barbara and the Ojai Valley Evie Ybarra, 2017-10-02 Stories of spirits's ances and strange events in Southern California history photos included From the Chumash legends of the Dolphins and the Whispering Tree to the ghostly sightings at Sedgwick Reserve hauntings abound here In beautiful La Conchita nightfall reveals dark secrets to anyone who will listen Sightings of mysterious apparitions are common along Creek Road considered one of the most haunted highways in California In the 1800s Summerland was home to spiritualists who held s ances in the Big Yellow House The Santa Barbara Mission is home to many specters including the famous Franciscan monk said to roam the cemetery and gardens Discover these stories and more with author Evie Ybarra as she explores the haunted side of history Scottish Literature of the South Seas, 2025-01-20 This volume edited by Richard J Hill and Allison E Francis explores literary connections between Scotland and the Pacific The contributors including some of the world's foremost scholars in Scottish and Pacific studies examine how Scottish writing about the Pacific and Pacific engagement with Scottish culture generates a cultural examination of Scotland's place in the British colonizing hierarchy. While Robert Louis Stevenson was the principal Scottish author who shaped these early discussions, other prominent Scottish authors are also analyzed. Several chapters examine Scottish engagement with the South Seas before and after Stevenson's involvement with Pacific cultural and political affairs. The book lends weight and understanding as to why Pacific Islanders both immigrant and indigenous often claim affiliations with Scotland and in the case of Hawaii and Samoa to Stevenson in particular.

Good Wives Margaret Forster, 2012-07-31
What is a good wife? The bestselling author of Hidden Lives explores four marriages including her own in different times and societies to find the answer. In 1848 Mary Moffatt became the wife of the missionary and explorer David Livingstone and her obedience and devotion eventually killed her. In 1960 Margaret Forster married her school sweetheart Hunter Davies in a London Registry Office and interpreted the role very differently. Between these two marriages is a huge gulf in which the notion of marriage changed immeasurably. Forster traces the shift in emphasis from submission to partnership first through the marriage of one unconventional American, Fanny Osbourne, to Robert Louis Stevenson in the late nineteenth century and then through that of Jennie Lee to Aneurin Bevan in the 1930s. Why does a woman still want to be a wife in the twenty-first century? What is the value of marriage today? Why do couples still marry in church? These are some of the questions Forster asks as she weaves the personal experience of forty years through the stories of three wives who have long fascinated her.

This anthology places the works of such well-known figures as Captain James Cook and Robert Louis Stevenson alongside the writings of lesser-known explorers, missionaries, beachcombers, and literary travellers who roamed the South Seas from the late 17th through the late 19th centuries.

Lives of the Novelists John Sutherland, 2012-03-27
No previous author has attempted a book such as this: a complete history of novels written in the English language from the genre's seventeenth-century origins to the present day. In the spirit of Dr Johnson's Lives of the Poets, acclaimed critic and scholar John Sutherland selects 294 writers whose works illustrate the best of every kind of fiction, from gothic penny dreadful and pornography to fantasy romance and high literature. Each author was chosen, Professor Sutherland explains, because his or her books are well worth reading and are likely to remain so for at least another century. Sutherland presents these authors in chronological order, in each case deftly combining a lively and informative biographical sketch with an opinionated assessment of the writer's work. Taken together, these novelists provide both a history of the novel and a guide to its rich variety. Always entertaining and sometimes shocking, Sutherland considers writers as diverse as Daniel Defoe, Henry James, James Joyce, Edgar Allan Poe, Virginia Woolf, Michael Crichton, Jeffrey Archer, and Jacqueline Susann. Written for all lovers of fiction, Lives of the Novelists succeeds both as introduction and re-introduction, as Sutherland presents favorite and familiar novelists in new ways and transforms the less favored and less familiar through his relentlessly fascinating readings The Caxton Head Catalogue James Tregaskis (Firm),1915 Sale Anderson Galleries, Inc,1918 *The Library of the Late H. web solution initial velocity  $u = 6.0 \text{ m/s}$  final velocity  $v = 4.4 \text{ m/s}$  because direction of ball has become opposite time  $0.04 \text{ s}$  thus acceleration  $a = \frac{v - u}{t} = \frac{4.4 - 6.0}{0.04} = \frac{-1.6}{0.04} = -40 \text{ m/s}^2$  after multiplying  $10^4$  by  $100$  to make calculations simpler we get a  $10404260 \text{ m/s}^2$
