Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non-foundational non-cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory

Theatre Talk Lilian Chambers, 2001 Interviews with Irish theatre practitioners Trauma and Dissociation in the Works and Life of Sebastian Barry Niko Pomakis, 2021 Can language and literature cure psychological trauma If so what forms do they have to take in doing so When does language hit the wall where the unspeakable mandates silence And where might literature come in as the rescuing hand by offering forms of expression which are rooted in speech but transcend the merely spoken This study confronts these issues through the double lenses of Sebastian Barry's uvre and the complex of dissociative disorders that are at work both in his creative output and the ways in which he fictionalizes dark and traumatic biographical data

Ireland on Stage Hiroko Mikami, Minako Okamuro, Naoko Yagi, 2007 Essays on Irish theatre in the second half of the twentieth century

Some Explicit Polaroids Mark Ravenhill, 2014-02-17 From the celebrated and controversial writer of Shopping and Fucking Some Explicit Polaroids premiered at the New Ambassadors Theatre London in October 1999 in a production directed by Max Stafford Clark for Out of Joint prior to a national tour There are few stage authors writing more interestingly than Mark Ravenhill He is it is now yet more evident a searing intelligent disturbing sociologist with a talent for satirical dialogue and a flair for sexual sensationalism Financial Times

Mapping Irish Theatre Chris Morash, Shaun Richards, 2013-12-12 Seamus Heaney once described the sense of place generated by the early Abbey theatre as the imaginative protein of later Irish writing Drawing on theorists of space such as Henri Lefebvre and Yi Fu Tuan Mapping Irish Theatre argues that theatre is a machine for making place from space Concentrating on Irish theatre the book investigates how this Irish sense of place was both produced by and produced the remarkable work of the Irish Revival before considering what happens when this spatial formation begins to fade Exploring more recent site specific and place specific theatre alongside canonical works of Irish theatre by playwrights including J M Synge Samuel Beckett and Brian Friel the study proposes an original theory of theatrical space and theatrical identification whose application extends beyond Irish theatre and will be useful for all theatre scholars
