

Zaccheus Receives Messianic Salvation

Luke 19:9, 10 (NASB)

And Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.”

- Another person of low status finds salvation
- It is God who seeks to save the lost: Ezekiel 34:11, 12; Luke 15:4-32
- “Son of Abraham” means “of the qualities of Abraham”
- “Today” is often linked to the day of salvation: Heb. 4:7; and see Luke 19:5; Luke 23:43

Stewardship From Abraham To Zaccheus With Some Contemporary Religious And Political Implications:

Stewardship Joseph Johnson,1995-12-01 The Lukan Lens on Wealth and Possessions Rachel L. Coleman,2019-12-02
In The Lukan Lens on Wealth and Possessions A Perspective Shaped by Reversal and Right Response Rachel Coleman offers a detailed look at Luke's wealth ethic. The long debated question of how Luke understands the relationship between followers of Jesus and material possessions is examined with careful exegesis and keen literary and theological sensitivity. The twin motifs established in Luke's introductory unit, Luke 1:5-4:44, reversal and right response, provide the hermeneutical lenses that allow the reader to discern a consistent Lukan perspective on wealth in the life of disciples. With an engaging style and an eye to the contemporary church, the book will appeal to both scholars and pastors. Gospel Herald,1930 A New Climate for Stewardship Wallace E. Fisher,1976 The First and Finest Rev. Fr. Robert Holet, DMin.,2013-11
The First and Finest Orthodox Christian Stewardship as Sacred Offering explores the rich biblical and historical themes of Christian stewardship from an Eastern Orthodox perspective, drawing insights from themes in the Old and New Testaments and ancient Christianity. The study of stewardship in Church history reveals how contemporary concepts of the religious economy impact how and why Christians exercise stewardship today. The premise for this study is that Orthodox stewardship is centered in the priestly offering of Christ and His followers, who comprise His Church. This helps Christians today to differentiate the holy way of Christian offering from false or misguided concepts of stewardship and offers suggestions for ways in which church communities can rediscover the richness of these insights from the ancient Orthodox tradition. This study is intended to challenge every reader to consider whether he or she offers his or her first and finest to the Lord and encourages parishes to exercise stewardship as an act of divine worship in the service of God and the poor. Christian Stewardship and Its Modern Implications Paul Lindemann,1933 Stewardship Steven F. Kindle,2015-04-15
There is little disagreement that our world is as close to self-destruction as it has ever been. Humanity included. It is unnecessary to list the wars, political conflicts, diseases, ecological disasters, and the like; we are all too familiar with a daily rehearsal of our plight. What there is little or no agreement on is the way out. How will we, as the human race, find our way out of our mutually shared predicament and into a world of wholeness and abundance that the Hebrews named shalom? Is there any wisdom available to us that can lead the way? The answer proposed here is to reconnect with the biblical notion of stewardship as a way of life. Stewardship and the Economy of God John Reumann,1992
A wide-ranging historical exploration of stewardship, Reumann explores the many meanings and connotations of stewardship by discussing the history and background of the Greek word oikonomia, which has significant historical links to Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox thought and ties into Christian views of world history, salvation history, and eschatology. Accountable to God Mike Whitmore,2007-01-01
Isn't stewardship really just about money? Absolutely not. According to Mike Whitmore, author of Accountable to God: Biblical Stewardship, stewardship is a concept that can be found throughout the Bible and it involves a variety of diverse subjects worshipping, interacting with creation using gifts from God maintaining our bodies sharing the Gospel and our relationships with enemies strangers and others Understanding these and other subjects is critical for Christians for two important reasons First the Bible teaches that all people will one day be held accountable for their stewardship Second our stewardship responsibilities give us a chance to demonstrate our love and reverence for God This book takes a distinctive look at a seemingly familiar concept Does your thinking on stewardship match up with what the Bible says
