Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public s ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently The History of Art A. Lewis,2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media The History of Evil in the Early Modern Age Daniel Robinson,2018-06-14 The third volume of The History of Evil encompasses the early modern era from 1450 1700 This revolutionary period exhibited immense change in both secular knowledge and sacred understanding It saw the fall of Constantinople and the rise of

The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon, 2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies
