Nathaniel Philbrick

Still Life With Rice:

Still Life With Rice Helie Lee, 1997-04-08 In this radiant memoir of her grandmother's life Lee recreates a culture that is both seductively exotic and strangely familiar Lee's desire to recover the family's history as well as to understand the intricate weave of her own identity results in the exploration of universal issues such as the complex nature of family relations and the rapidly changing lives of women in this century of photos

Still Life and Other Stories Junzo Shono, 2010-10-29 The 13 stories in this collection by Japanese writer Junzo Shono are linked by the daily life of a husband and wife and their children The stories are like the back of a tapestry where threads seem to cross randomly Births weddings school activities a suicide attempt all occur out of view Readers understand crucial events through ordinary days But these quiet tales have a cumulative power Toys birds and playing cards relate to human lives as portents parallels parodies The mother with her secret sorrows and the puzzled bemused father savor reveries and survive unexplained misfortunes Shono's vivid snapshot technique the layering of images events and conversations creates an effect Western readers may find more akin to an Ozu film crossed with haiku than to traditional short stories

Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children's literature Italian American literature Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coruña Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies

Begin Here

Rocio G. Davis, 2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century. Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics, blending verse, prose, diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self-identification among others. Korea Update, 1995

The Koreas Mary E. Connor, 2009-06-30 Asia in Focus The Koreas is the most complete, accessible and up to date resource available on both North Korea and South Korea. Asia in Focus The Koreas presents an authoritative and unprecedented look at the contrasts and similarities between the history, geography, politics, economy, culture and society of North Korea and South Korea. It offers a wealth of new insights into North Korean life as well as extensive explorations of Korean music, arts, language, cuisine and popular culture, including the Korean wave which began with the export of Korean television dramas to other parts of Asia and has spread South Korean culture around the world. Also included are sections on women's history and roles, class and ethnicity and a wide range of contemporary issues. For a deeper understanding of one of the most closely watched regions of the globe, this volume is a must.

The Contemporary Ensemble Duška Radosavljević, 2013-08-21 Dr Radosavljević has an excellent and extensive grasp of her subject and deep understanding of not only the history of these groups but how they function and how each contributes to the field of ensemble theatre. David Crespy, University of Missouri, USA. Questions of ensemble: what it is, how it works, are both inherent to a variety of Western theatre traditions and re-emerging and evolving in striking new ways in the twenty-first century. The Contemporary Ensemble draws together an unprecedented range of original interviews with world-renowned theatre makers in order to directly address both the former and latter concerns. Reflecting on the ensemble way of working within this major new resource are figures including Michael Boyd, Hermann Wndrich, Yuri Butusov, Max Stafford Clark, Elizabeth LeCompte, Lyn Gardner, Adriano Shaplin, Phelim McDermott and Emma Rice, representing companies including The RSC, The Berliner Ensemble, The Satirikon Theatre, Out of Joint, The Wooster Group, Kneehigh Theatre, Song of the Goat, The Riot Group, The Neo-Futurists, Shadow Casters and Ontroerend Goed. All 22 interviews were conducted especially for the collection and draw upon the author's rich background working as scholar, educator and dramaturg with a variety of ensembles. The resulting compendium radically re-situates the ensemble in the context of globalisation, higher education and simplistic understandings of text-based and devised theatre practice and traces a compelling new line through the contemporary theatre landscape. Korean Culture, 2002

Cuisine, Colonialism and Cold War Katarzyna J. Cwiertka, 2013-06-01 When you consider the size of Korea's population and the breadth of its territory, it's easy to see that this small region has played a disproportionately large role in twentieth-century history. The peninsula has experienced colonial submission at the hands of Japan, occupation by the United States and the Soviet Union, war and a national division that continues today. Cuisine, Colonialism and Cold War traces these developments as they played out in an unusual sphere: Korea's national cuisine, which is savored for its diversity of ingredients and flavor. Katarzyna J. Cwiertka shows that many foods and dietary practices identified as Korean have been created or influenced by its colonial encounters and she uncovers how the military and the Cold War had an impact on diet in both the North and South Surveying the manufacture and consumption of rice and soy sauce the rise of restaurants wartime food and the 1990s famine that still affects North Korea Cwiertka illuminates the persistent legacy of Japanese rule and the consequences of armed conflicts and the Cold War Bringing us closer to the Korean people and their daily lives this book shines new light on critical issues in the social history of this peninsula Advertising Arts & Crafts ,1926 Leonard's Price Index of Latin American Art at Auction Susan Theran,1999-11-29 The new Leonard s Price Index of Latin American Art at Auction focuses on a category of art that covers a wide range of periods and styles It is unique in its coverage of 30 years of sale results and the inclusion of over 1 100 scholarly essays and biographies some never before published in the English language Entries covering the years 1969 to 1999 number over 30 000 lots The prices realized are from every auction house in North America and are listed in descending order by price within each auction season About England David Matless,2023-06-17 A cultural history of Englishness and the idea of England since 1960 Brexit thrust long fraught debates about Englishness and the idea of England into the spotlight About England explores imaginings of English identity since the 1960s in politics geography art architecture film and music David Matless reveals how the national is entangled with the local the regional the European the international the imperial the post imperial and the global He also addresses physical landscapes from the village and country house to urban suburban and industrial spaces and he reflects on the nature of English modernity In short About England uncovers the genealogy of recent cultural and political debates in England showing how many of today s social anxieties developed throughout the last half century The Heart of the Plate Mollie Katzen,2013-09-17 Delightfully unfussy meatless meals from the author of Moosewood Cookbook With The Moosewood Cookbook Mollie Katzen changed the way a generation cooked and brought vegetarian cuisine into the mainstream In The Heart of the Plate she completely reinvents the vegetarian repertoire unveiling a collection of beautiful healthful and unfussy dishes her absolutely most loved Her new cuisine is light sharp simple and modular her inimitable voice is as personal helpful clear and funny as ever Whether it s a salad of kale and angel hair pasta with orange chili oil or a seasonal autumn lasagna these dishes are celebrations of vegetables They feature layered dishes that juxtapose colors and textures orange rice with black beans or tiny buttermilk corn cakes on a Peruvian potato stew Suppers from the oven like vegetable pizza and mushroom popover pie are comforting but never stodgy Burgers and savory pancakes from eggplant Parmesan burgers to zucchini ricotta cloud cakes make weeknight dinners fresh and exciting Optional Enhancements allow cooks to customize every recipe The Heart of the Plate is vibrantly illustrated with photographs and original watercolors by the author herself Catalogue of the ... Travels with George Nathaniel Philbrick, 2021-09-14 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Travels with George is quintessential Philbrick a lively courageous and masterful achievement The Boston Globe Does George Washington still matter Bestselling author Nathaniel Philbrick argues for Washington s unique contribution to the forging of America by retracing his journey as a new president through all thirteen former colonies which were now an unsure nation Travels with George marks a new first person voice for Philbrick weaving history and personal reflection into a single narrative When George Washington became president in 1789 the United States of America was still a loose and quarrelsome confederation and a tentative political experiment Washington undertook a tour of the ex colonies to talk to ordinary citizens about his new government and to imbue in them the idea of being one thing Americans In the fall of 2018 Nathaniel Philbrick embarked on his own journey into what Washington called the infant woody country to see for himself what America had become in the 229 years since Writing in a thoughtful first person about his own adventures with his wife Melissa and their dog Dora Philbrick follows Washington s presidential excursions from Mount Vernon to the new capital in New York a monthlong tour of Connecticut Massachusetts New Hampshire and Rhode Island a venture onto Long Island and eventually across Georgia South Carolina and North Carolina The narrative moves smoothly between the eighteenth and twenty first centuries as we see the country through both Washington s and Philbrick s eyes Written at a moment when America s founding figures are under increasing scrutiny Travels with George grapples bluntly and honestly with Washington s legacy as a man of the people a reluctant president and a plantation owner who held people in slavery At historic houses and landmarks Philbrick reports on the reinterpretations at work as he meets reenactors tour guides and other keepers of history s flame He paints a picture of eighteenth century America as divided and fraught as it is today and he comes to understand how Washington compelled enticed stood up to and listened to the many different people he met along the way and how his all consuming belief in the union helped to forge a nation

The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon, 2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in
