Goran with his mastery of language and images chronicles in stories the unheralded laughter and sorrows of Americans seldom noted in fiction. Goran's evocative settings and narratives range from the supernatural to the humorous, from bawdy to richly detailed realism. The bewildering ceremony enacted on a suburban lawn on Good Friday, an inventory of the loves of a lifetime compiled on scraps of paper and matchbook covers, the young man home on leave from the army who encounters a woman whose entire life is reflected in the wires holding together her threadbare Christmas tree, and the young man on the first day of his first job who delivers roses to a house where the homeowner had died since ordering the flowers. Goran with his mastery of language and images chronicles in stories the unheralded laughter and sorrows of Americans seldom noted in fiction.
