Resources in Education ,1997 Getting the Green: Fundraising Campaigns for Community Colleges Stuart R. Grover,2009 Comprehensive guide to planning carrying out and following up fundraising campaigns for community colleges Published by AACC in partnership with Council for Advancement and Support of Education and Council for Resource Development Provided by publisher Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English,2006-02-16 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Educational Leadership and Administration presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today With more than 600 entries written by more than 200 professors graduate students practitioners and association officials the two volumes of this encyclopedia represent the most comprehensive knowledge base of educational leadership and school administration that has as yet been compiled Vision for Opportunity Martha M. Ellis,2020-01-24 John Edward Roueche is the most productive and the most recognized community college leader in the history of the community college movement He is a person with remarkable vision and over the decades has demonstrated an uncanny ability to scan the horizon of higher education identify emerging issues or issues that should emerge and place them squarely before leaders and practitioners in the field Throughout his career Roueche has powerfully led the community college field by recognizing often long before others do areas of potential opportunity or impending concern and addressing them through prolific research writing and speaking This book explores the influence of John on individual lives and community colleges across the United States Through stories and research of his years in the community college vineyard the book follows the professional chronology of John s life from childhood to today While segments of his life history are included in the chapters this is not a biography This work is a collection of voices on the impact of John from many perspectives Themes run throughout the chapters that paint a picture of this man Hopefully you the reader will smile laugh reflect and enjoy the life and influence of John Edward Roueche Community College Review ,1995 Teaching in the Health-related Professions Steven B. Dowd,1995 Creating the Engaged University Bill Silag,Ann Fields,2001 Mastering Theories of Educational Leadership and Management Donnie Adams,2018-10-08 The field of Educational Leadership and Management originated and grew to maturity in the Western societies of the USA UK and Australia However since the mid 1990s scholars in east Asia have asserted the need to ground leadership theories and practices in the local contexts in which school leaders practice Mastering Theories of Educational Leadership and Management is one of the first volumes published which seeks to do this The edited chapters illustrate and elaborate how perspectives on key concepts and theories of educational leadership are being interpreted and enacted in East Asian societies By doing so the book makes a valuable contribution which will hopefully reduce the gap between theories as explained by Western scholars and practices as enacted in East Asian societies Professor Dr Philip Hallinger Practical

Leadership in Community Colleges George R. Boggs, Christine J. McPhail, 2016-07-18 Anticipate manage and overcome the complex issues facing community colleges Practical Leadership in Community Colleges offers a path forward through the challenges community colleges face every day Through field observations reports news coverage and interviews with leaders and policy makers this book digs deep into the issues confronting college leaders and provides clear direction for managing through the storm With close examination of both emerging trends and perennial problems the discussion delves into issues brought about by changing demographics federal and state mandates public demand economic cycles student unrest employee groups trustees college supporters and more to provide practical guidance toward optimal outcomes for all stakeholders Written by former presidents including a past president of the American Association of Community Colleges this book provides expert guidance on anticipating and managing the critical issues that affect the entire institution Both authors serve as consultants executive coaches and advisors to top leaders higher education institutions and leadership development programs throughout the United States Community colleges are facing increasingly complex issues from both without and within Some can be avoided others only mitigated but all must be managed and college leaders must be fully prepared or risk failing the students and the community This book provides real world guidance for current and emerging leaders and trustees seeking more effective management methods with practical insight and expert perspective Tackle the college completion challenge and performance based funding initiatives Manage through economic cycles declining support and calls for accountability Delve into the issues of privatization and employee unionization Execute strategies to align institutional goals and mission Manage organizational change and new ways of thinking that are essential in today s competitive environment Manage issues involving diversity inclusiveness and equity Prepare adequately for campus emergencies Community colleges are the heartbeat of the nation s higher education system and bear the tremendous responsibility of serving the needs of a vast and varied student body Every day may bring new issues but effective management allows institutions to rise to the challenge rather than falter under pressure Practical Leadership in Community Colleges goes beyond theory to provide the practical guidance leadership needs to more effectively lead institutions to achieve results and serve the students and the community Instructional faculty and staff in public 2-year colleges ,
