Teaching Postcolonialism And Postcolonial Literatures:

Teaching Post-colonialism and Post-colonial Literatures Anne Collett,Lars Jensen,Anna Rutherford,1997 In this volume an international group of scholars address the multiplicity of issues concerning the presentations to students of post colonial literature This collection focuses upon specific strategies for teaching post colonial literature within particular political environments The contributors offer specific course outlines covering the literature of a number of post colonial regions as well as articles on teaching post colonialism The individual chapters survey the changes and ideas in the discourse of Commonwealth literature since the emergence of this particular field The essays are historical formulating a cohesive sense of past and present The Object of Study in the Humanities Julio Jensen,2004 The Object of the Study of Humanities discusses the grounding and present orientation of the Humanities in the midst of an epistemological crisis Acknowledging the impossibility of reaching an abstract synthesis of the humanistic studies the book exhibits the internal diversity of its disciplines literary studies assyriology psychology postcolonial studies philology etc A non systematic non synthetic approach is proposed that nonetheless claims a certain unity of discourse as it responds to the suggestion that it is possible to speak of the Humanities as a concept with its own internal coherence Post-Colonial Studies: The Key Concepts Bill Ashcroft,Gareth Griffiths,Helen Tiffin,2013-06-26 This hugely popular A Z guide provides a comprehensive overview of the issues which characterize post colonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and the crucial part it plays in debates about race gender politics language and identity For this third edition over thirty new entries have been added including Cosmopolitanism Development Fundamentalism Nostalgia Post colonial cinema Sustainability Trafficking World Englishes Post Colonial Studies The Key Concepts remains an essential guide for anyone studying this vibrant field

Teaching Social Justice Using Postcolonial Texts Geraldine Balzer,Teresa Strong-Wilson,Anne Burke,2023-07-28 This book explores how teachers can re examine their emotional investments in enacting dominant settler values through changing their text selection and teaching practices Based on a longitudinal qualitative research study conducted by a national team of literacy scholars in collaboration with practicing literacy teachers at eight sites across Canada the book investigates how groups of teachers working collaboratively in inquiry groups develop and implement curriculum to promote their own and their students understandings of social justice in postcolonial and settler spaces In particular the book highlights the rich and dynamic landscape of postcolonial authors illustrators and texts the development of culturally sensitive curricula and critical pedagogies possible in addressing contemporary and historical issues both local and global This book is primarily of interest to literacy scholars literacy instructors teacher educators in teacher education programs educational leaders practicing teachers from the K 12 spectrum and school district staff and policy makers with responsibilities for or interests in the potential of literacy and literature engagement for social justice education The book is also be of interest to postsecondary educators and teacher educators wishing to use literature in social justice anti racist and anti oppressive courses The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2006 Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature Gina Wisker, 2006-11-14 Key Concepts in Postcolonial Literature provides an overview of the main themes issues and critical perspectives that have had the greatest effect on postcolonial literatures Discussing historical cultural and contextual background it contains selected work of some of the major writers from this period Teaching Postcolonial Environmental Literature and Media Cajetan Iheka, 2021-12-28 Provides strategies for teaching postcolonial environmental literature by writers from the Global South and indigenous peoples Topics and approaches include environmental justice queer ecofeminism animal studies migration anticolonialism petrofiction sea level rise environmental humanities and environmental justice organizations Works from Africa Latin America East Asia and the Caribbean are discussed Post-Colonial Literatures Deborah L. Madsen, 1999-06-20 The postcolonial literary canon remains comprised of privileged national and regional texts The English language literatures of Africa India Canada Australia New Zealand Southeast Asia and the Caribbean clearly emerged from an earlier model of Commonwealth literature Post Colonial Literatures examines the development of this body of writing and is the first such study to expand the paradigm to accommodate the literatures of the colonised peoples of North America The authors engage with the major debates within existing postcolonial studies addressing issues such as hybridity subaltern voices decolonisation multiculturalism and border cultures Subjects covered include Fred D Aguiar Merle Collins and Toni Morrison Native Canadian writing and US Canadian literary relations writings of the Australian Aboriginals women writers in Zimbabwe and the relationship between black and Hispanic discourses of America Transcultural Graffiti Russell West-Pavlov, 2005 Transcultural Graffiti reads a range of texts prose poetry drama in several European languages as exemplars of diasporic writing The book scrutinizes contemporary transcultural literary creation for the manner in which it gives hints about the teaching of literary studies in our postcolonial globalizing era Transcultural Graffiti suggest that cultural work in particular transcultural work assembles and collates material from various cultures in their moment of meeting The teaching of such cultural collage in the classroom should equip students with the means to reflect upon and engage in cultural bricolage themselves in the present day The texts read from C saire s adaptation of Shakespeare s Tempest via the diaspora fictions of Marica Bodrozic or David Dabydeen to the post 9 11 poetry of New York poets are understood as graffiti like inscriptions the result of fleeting encounters in a swiftly changing public world Such texts provide impulses for a performative risk pedagogy capable of modelling the ways in which our constitutive individual and social narratives are constructed deconstructed and reconstructed today Creating Postcolonial Literature C. Davis, 2013-04-21 Using case studies this book explores the publishing of African literature addressing the construction of literary value relationships between African writers and British publishers and importance of the African market It analyses the historical political and economic conditions framing the emergence of postcolonial literature
