Cradling the Chrysalis E. Mary Sullivan, Harriett Goldenberg, 2003-01-01 This book addresses the underlying philosophy and rationale for the training of psychotherapists How can training prepare prospective psychotherapists and counsellors for a task whose practitioners cannot even agree as to whether it is a science or an art an impersonal clinical interaction or a profoundly humane even spiritual encounter The authors argue for an understanding of psychotherapy training as a process which closely parallels that of therapy itself Cradling the Chrysalis Mary MacCallum Sullivan, Harriett Goldenberg, 2018-05-16 This book addresses the ethical and philosophical basis for the teaching learning involved in becoming a psychotherapist How can training prepare prospective psychotherapists counsellors and counselling psychologists for a task whose practitioners cannot even agree as to whether it is an art or a science an impersonal clinical interaction or a profoundly humane even spiritual encounter The authors believe they share with their students a passion about the possibilities inherent in this particular kind of conversation Such a meeting demands a fully personal engagement and a profoundly ethical attitude towards the relationship with the Other it is also potentially an important beginning in repairing the world The book explores the relative importance and emphasis of the structure content and process of psychotherapy training Its thesis is that the teaching learning takes place in the quality of the reciprocal meeting between the teacher and the learner Educational Technology and the Teaching-learning Process Jeanne Saylor

Berthold, 1969 About 900 references from mostly books and journals to July 1 1969 This bibliography is intended to serve as an introduction to the literature on the teaching learning process and on the various new approaches in the field of teaching technology Entries arranged in broad classified order No index Handbook of Family Therapy Training and Supervision Howard A. Liddle, Douglas C. Breunlin, Richard C.
