Teaching Art To Special Students:

Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs Through Art Beverly Levett Gerber, Doris M. Guay, Jane Burnette, 2024-09-30 This second edition of Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs Through Art is written for art educators, special educators, and those who value the arts for students with special needs. It builds on teachers' positive responses to the first edition and now combines over 700 years of the educational experience of arts and special educators who share their art lessons, behavior management strategies, and classroom stories. The revised second edition provides updated chapters addressing students with emotional, behavioral, disabilities, learning disabilities, intellectual disabilities, physical disabilities, and visual and hearing impairments. The newly revised second edition includes chapters on students with autism spectrum disorder, preschool students, and students experiencing trauma. All chapters have been updated to include current definitions and language, recommended teaching strategies, art lesson adaptations, behavior management strategies, and references to related chapters. Follow-up activities are provided for further insights into each group of students. A new summary chapter connects how the authors' collaborations resulted in changes to two professional organizations. Since the first edition, many of the featured authors established the new Division of Visual and Performing Arts Education (DARTS) at the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) and earlier formed a new National Art Education Association (NAEA) Interest group, Special Needs in Art Education (SNAE), now Arts in Special Education (ASE). This edition is ideal for preservice arts methods courses and education courses on accessibility and inclusion at the undergraduate and graduate levels. It continues to offer current yet proven best practices for reaching and teaching this ever-important population of students through the arts.

Making Art Special Helen Goren Shafon, 2012-08-05 A guide to teaching art to children with cognitive and motor disabilities in a classroom or other setting. Includes over fifty full-color illustrated lessons with step-by-step instructions as well as helpful information for creating your own lessons. The new and improved second edition contains larger pictures.

Teaching Art to Special Students Philip James, 1988 Reaching and Teaching Doris P. Guay, 2006 Teaching Art Rhian Brynjolson, 2010 This resource is written for classroom teachers, art education specialists, childcare workers, artists working in schools, parents who home school their children, and school administrators. It can also be used as a university textbook for Education students. The book provides a framework for teaching art in a way that is integrated with regular classroom practice and mindful of current art curriculum outcomes. Although the book focuses on art for primary and middle school students from pre-school to grade eight, Teaching Art is also useful to art specialists at the high school level who are looking for new strategies or project ideas to add to their established secondary programs. Revised and expanded from the author's previous resource, Art Illustration. This resource integrates new developments in art education. Art Teaching George Szekely, Julie Alsip Bucknam, 2013-06-17 This comprehensive up-to-date art methods text presents fundamental theories, principles, creative approaches, and resources for art teaching in elementary through middle school. □□□ □□□□ □□□
