Teaching The Exceptional Child:

Teaching Exceptional Children in All America's Schools Maynard Clinton Reynolds, Jack W. Birch, 1982 The introductory text focuses on special education in the mainstream with two major themes 1 the central and joint responsibility of teacher parent and principal and 2 the primary need to limit the occurrence and magnitude of educational problems in handicapped children The book's approach includes emphasizing processes that blend special and regular education highlighting the teamwork concept relating assessment directly to program planning using findings from research studies or operating programs to support significant points contrasting prevailing versus preferred practices noting educational and financial cost benefit information and maintaining an international perspective through comprehensive information on both Canada and the United States plus illustrative references from other countries Individual chapters have the following titles
