Team Power Making Library Meetings Work:

Team Power Barbara I. Dewey, Sheila D. Creth, Barbara Hawkins, 1993 Designed to help members of library teams to collaborate and to accomplish their collective goals this handbook describes the methods and skills needed for effective meetings The book also explains the advances in telecommunications which mean librarians can exchange ideas without meeting Public Speaking Handbook for Librarians and Information Professionals Sarah R. Statz, 2010-07-27 Now more than ever librarians need good communication skills They are no longer unseen collectors classifiers and cultural guardians Information professionals are doing more public speaking at conferences in meetings classes book talks and countless other situations but many of them dislike even fear the thought of getting up in front of a group of people and giving a presentation Librarians and other information professionals can find in this work help in overcoming their hesitation Part one offers basic principles for better speech preparation and delivery discussing such topics as the importance of good listening skills to being a good speaker doing the necessary research beforehand applying organizational skills to a presentation engaging an audience practicing a presentation before actually giving it and putting oneself at ease among others Part Two discusses the specific situations in which librarians often have to communicate including interviews interpersonal communication library instruction meetings and presentations to large groups Communicating Professionally, Third Edition Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Kirsti Nilsen, 2013-07-17 An updated and expanded version of the training guide Booklist called one of the most valuable professional publications to come off the presses in a long time the new third edition of Communicating Professionally is completely revised with new sections outlining the opportunities offered by contemporary communication media With more resource information on cross cultural communication including new applications of communication principles and the latest research based material on communication in general this comprehensive manual covers Fundamental skills such as listening speaking and writing Reading others nonverbal behavior How to integrate skills with tips for practicing Sense making a theory of information as communication Common interactions like speaking one on one working in groups and giving presentations Training others in communication skills including a special section on technology based training Fundamentals of Library Supervision Joan Giesecke, Beth McNeil, 2010 Today's workplace Becoming a manager Communication Work climate and the art of motivation Team work and group dynamics Inclusiveness and diversity Policies and the legal environment Hiring and interviewing Orientation and training Planning and organizing work Managing performance Budgeting basics Facilities space and safety Meeting management Managing rewards Project management Career management Streamlining Library Services Richard M. Dougherty, 2008-02-15 Despite technologies many basic library activities still lend themselves to analysis and improvement Author Richard Dougherty provides numerous examples and easy to apply tools and techniques that can be used to analyze what libraries are doing how they are doing it and how much time is required to do it These tools include block diagrams check sheets flow process charts work flow diagrams flow charts through put analysis self administered diary studies and work sampling techniques Specific examples from all areas of library operations are presented to illustrate how techniques can be applied to analyze what occurs at critical service areas Streamlining Library Services provides detailed information on how to diagnose problem areas using such tools as Pareto and fishbone charts use techniques such as brainstorming and focus groups organize a work flow study and build and present cost studies Special emphasis is placed on activities that should occur after the analysis is concluded including data analysis as well as reporting study results and making recommendations to management and guidelines are provided for managers and staff as they strive to streamline activities The final two chapters should be of special interest to managers The first chapter is devoted to implementation issues and strategies that must be addressed as new workflows and services are introduced and the latter chapter focuses on organizational change issues and strategies for building staff support toward change Fundamentals of Library Supervision, Third Edition Beth McNeil, 2017-11-21 Staff

Management in Library and Information Work Peter Jordan, Caroline Lloyd, 2017-07-05 This standard text has been fully revised and updated for its fourth edition to reflect continuing technological changes as well as issues such as social inclusion lifelong learning and European employment legislation Chapter 1 on the working environment has been completely rewritten The present environment brings problems of staff motivation de professionalization and the loss of control Chapter 2 reminds readers of basic motivation theories now presented in a more logical sequence and how to deal with such problems Chapter 3 on workforce planning has been retitled Human Resource Planning and revised to take into account the modes of staffing appropriate for today s turbulent environment Effective human resource planning requires excellent selection and recruitment procedures best practice and developments in this area are explored in Chapters 4 Job Descriptions and Person Specifications and 5 Recruitment and Selection of Staff In Chapter 6 on staff appraisal more attention has been given to multi rating approaches such as 360 whereby different aspects of work can be assessed by different groups of people and to appraisal of junior by senior staff The last decade has seen increased emphasis on training and development to deliver high quality services in a climate of constant change Chapter 7 has therefore been reordered and expanded in order to reflect new approaches and changes in this area In Chapter 8 Staff Supervision and Interpersonal Skills recent emphasis on leadership and counselling skills are reflected as is the growing need to do more with less through enhanced time management and stress management techniques With this new edition this core guide brings professionals involved in managing library and information staff up to date with how to cope with the most pressing problems and challenges in today s fast changing environment The Role of the Academic Librarian Anne Langley, Edward Gray, K T L Vaughan, 2003-10-31 This book covers the practical side of being an academic librarian a role that has undergone a large degree of change in recent years It outlines and describes the skills necessary to succeed in these large and often complex organisations The book includes tools and techniques for an academic librarian for managing time meetings projects publishing and research communications
